Approved: Martha Irwin, Chair, Community Services and Interdisciplinary Studies

Course Code: Title	SSW307: FIELDWORK FOR SOCIAL SERVICE WORK
Program Number: Name	1203: SOCIAL SERV WORKER
Department:	SOCIAL SERVICES WORKER
Academic Year:	2022-2023
Course Description:	This course facilitates student participation in placement practicum for the Social Service Worker Program. Students will be placed in a community setting where under supervision, they will carry out social service work duties as defined by them, their supervisor and the program faculty. The goal of SSW fieldwork is to provide the students the opportunity to integrate and apply the knowledge, skills and values needed to carry out the role of Social Service Worker. Students are provided with feedback, supervision and mentoring from their field supervisor, and program faculty. The fieldwork experience provides students opportunity to learn about the mandate, philosophy, services/programs, strengths and challenges experienced by community/social services organizations. In addition, students learn to become part of an interdisciplinary team and learn to meet the needs of individuals, families, communities and/or issues serviced by the organization.
