

COURSE OUTLINE: SSW405 - FIELDWORK II

Prepared: Nicole Falldien, MSW, RSW & Leanne Murray, MSW, RSW

Approved: Martha Irwin, Chair, Community Services and Interdisciplinary Studies

Course Code: Title	SSW405: FIELDWORK II FOR SOCIAL SERVICE WORK
Program Number: Name	1203: SOCIAL SERV WORKER  SOCIAL SERVICES WORKER  2022-2023
Department:
Academic Year:
Course Description:	Building upon accumulated academic and community experiences, students engage actively within a community/fieldwork setting to prepare and demonstrate entry level SSW professional and employment skills. The student will build their competencies in performing duties as defined by their own professional goals/learning contract, agency supervisor, and the program faculty. Students will demonstrate knowledge and skills related to the SSW practice (micro, mezzo, macro levels) and integrate various theoretical and applied approaches that support the values and ethics of the profession.
Total Credits:	11
Hours/Week:	21 280 SSW301, SSW307 SSW401
Total Hours:
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Substitutes:	SSW402
Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO's) addressed in this course:  Please refer to program web page for a complete listing of program outcomes where applicable.	<ul> <li>Develop respectful and collaborative professional and interpersonal relationships that adhere to professional, legal, and ethical standards aligned to social service work.</li> <li>VLO 2 Record information accurately and communicate effectively in written, digital, verbal and non-verbal ways, in adherence to privacy and freedom of information legislation, in accordance with professional and workplace standards.</li> <li>VLO 3 Integrate a practice framework within a service delivery continuum, addressing the needs of individuals, families and communities at micro, mezzo, macro and global levels, and work with them in achieving their goals.</li> <li>VLO 4 Plan and implement accessible and responsive programs and services, recognizing the diverse needs and experiences of individuals, groups, families and communities, and meeting these needs.</li> <li>VLO 5 Examine current social policy, relevant legislation, and political, social, historical, and/or economic systems and their impacts for individuals and communities when delivering services to the user/client.</li> <li>VLO 6 Develop strategies and approaches that support individual clients, groups, families and communities in building the capacity for self-advocacy, while affirming their dignity and self-worth.</li> </ul>

SAULT COLLEGE | 443 NORTHERN AVENUE | SAULT STE. MARIE, ON P6B 4J3, CANADA | 705-759-2554

SSW405: FIELDWORK II FOR SOCIAL SERVICE WORK

Course Outcomes and Learning Objectives:	Course	Outcome 1	Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 1
Books and Required Resources:	learning activities to accomplish the SSW learning contract and fieldwork evaluations.  Breaking Out of the Box Adventure-based field Instruction by Ward,K. & Mama,R. (2019) Publisher: Oxford University Press Edition: 4th Ed. ISBN: 9780190095314 SSW Field Placement Manual
Other Course Evaluation & Assessment Requirements:	Students are to understand and adhere with the Sault College Code of Conduct, SSW Course Skill Acquisition, Professional Development and Participation Guidelines, Course Addendum and the SSW Fieldwork Placement Manual. Students must actively engage in fieldwork and self-direct
Course Evaluation:	Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory & A minimum program GPA of 2.0 or higher where program specific standards exist is required for graduation.
	EES 10 Manage the use of time and other resources to complete projects.  EES 11 Take responsibility for ones own actions, decisions, and consequences.
	EES 9		in groups or teams that contribute to effective working e achievement of goals.
	EES 8 Show respect for the diverse opinions, values, belief systems, and contributions of others.
	and information systems.  EES 7 Analyze, evaluate, and apply relevant information from a variety of sources.
	EES 6	EES 5 Use a variety of thinking skills to anticipate and solve problems.  EES 6 Locate, select, organize, and document information using appropriate technology
		EES 4 Apply a systematic approach to solve problems.
		communication.
this course:	EES 2	that fulfills the purpose and meets the needs of the audience.  EES 2 Respond to written, spoken, or visual messages in a manner that ensures effect
Essential Employability Skills (EES) addressed in	EES 1		ly, concisely and correctly in the written, spoken, and visual form
	VLO 10	communities while rand address system	ty to work with the Indigenous individual, families, groups and respecting their inherent rights to self-determine, and to identify nic barriers that produce ill-effects, developing appropriate proaches such as trauma informed care practice.
	VLO 9	provider strategies	ls, groups, families and their communities to ensure that service promote social and economic justice, and challenge patterns of ination and harassment, and sexual violence with clients, munities.
	VLO 8	, ,	and approaches to implement and maintain holistic self-care as an service profession.
		needs of marginaliz	ed or vulnerable populations to act as allies and advocates.
	VLO 7		oppressive, strengths-based practice, recognizing the capacity for th of individuals and communities when responding to the diverse

Demonstrate collaborative and respectful professional and interpersonal relationships reflective of entry-level SSW skills, values, ethics, and standards.	1.1 Deepen working relationships with clients, colleagues, supervisor(s), field faculty and community partners 1.2 Gain knowledge, in consultation and collaboration with others, to develop an integrated understanding of client situations and the system of care provided 1.3 Adhere to the SSW scope of practice in placement activities, maintain effective professional boundaries and be accountable to self and others 1.4 Actively participate and contribute to the field work setting/role 1.5 Use a variety of SSW interpersonal/communication skills at an expected professional level with clients, colleagues, supervisors, and others 1.6 Actively seek supervision and feedback that promotes self and professional growth 1.7 Develop respectful, non-judgmental practice with clients without discrimination or imposition of own values/beliefs 1.8 Accurately label use of entry level social service work skills in supervision and reflective journals 1.9 Professionally attend to and accomplish fieldwork setting tasks and duties 1.10 Deepen understanding of client barriers, needs, strengths, resiliency and goals to sustain effective working relationships 1.11 Apply previously/currently-studied knowledge and skills to helping situations within field setting
Course Outcome 2	Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 2
2. Establish ability to communicate clearly, concisely and professionally in various methods as an entry-level, graduating, SSW student.	2.1 Complete accurate and professional written documentation that complies with legislation, field work setting, academic and professional standards 2.2 Use respectful and culturally safe interpersonal skills in face-to-face, telephone and/or other electronic forms of communication 2.3 Research, plan and deliver mutually-agreed upon learning activities to address a need within the field work setting or community 2.4 Use effective and appropriate communication and technology to support advocacy efforts with individuals, families, groups or communities to problem solve, access current and culturally relevant resources and to address needs 2.5 Complete timely, accurate, and professional assignments in co-requisite seminar class and fieldwork setting as required 2.6 Consistently use active and reflective listening skills/relationship skills that support client centered care
Course Outcome 3	Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 3

Demonstrate abilities to work from an	3.1 Articulate, analyze, integrate and apply theoretical models in practice in fieldwork setting, anti-oppressive, culturally	supervision, consultation in seminar and field/seminar safe, trauma-informed and strengths-based SSW	assignments 3.2 Develop and apply strategies and interventions that reflect practice approach with	the needs of diverse people served individuals, families, groups	3.3 Use effective facilitation skills, processes and strategies and/or communities.	that promote client strengths, empowerment, advocacy and social justice 3.4 Further understanding and use of helping networks and community resources that support client strengths and needs and self-advocacy 3.5 Reflect upon, document and present client assessment or intervention methods in supervision, team meetings and/or co-requisite seminar to share professional knowledge and understanding 3.6 Engage in reflective practice consistently to explore cultural diversity, cultural safety and responsive approaches to promote empowerment and address systemic barriers 3.7 Analyze and apply relevant SSW assessment models to understand and conceptualize client presenting needs/concerns/strengths (i.e.
	person-in-environment, community needs assessments, social functioning, strengths, bio-psycho-social and/or anti-oppressive assessment models/tools)
	3.8 Demonstrate effective helping and collegial relationships regardless of ethnicity, race, age, abilities, gender, social and economic status, or sexual orientation 3.9 Identify the personal, interpersonal, societal/historical, and current barriers that oppress or discriminate the clientele served by the field work setting and/or within the community
	3.10 Apply and communicate understanding of the importance of diversity and difference in shaping life experiences in practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels
	3.11 Identify and adopt a personal framework that guides individual practice and incorporates framework/model of the fieldwork setting and SSW profession knowledge
	3.12 Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment framework in engaging, assessing and intervention with clients served by the field work setting

Course Outcome 4

Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 4

4. Demonstrate SSW ethics, standards and principles representative of the professional scope of

4.1 Identify ethical dilemmas accurately and uses professional judgement and ethical decision making models in supervision, co-requisite seminar and consultation with others

SAULT COLLEGE | 443 NORTHERN AVENUE | SAULT STE. MARIE, ON P6B 4J3, CANADA | 705-759-2554

practice.	4.2 Apply critical thinking and problem solving skills to further understand evidence based practices and social problems/client needs using effective research skills 4.3 Actively prepare, plan and seek out supervision and professional development to support competency and growth 4.4 Effectively use the SSW Learning Contract to establish professional and personal goals 4.5 Ensure continued adherence and accountability to the Sau College SSW Fieldwork policies, fieldwork setting policies and procedures, and the legal and ethical standards 4.6 Implement on-going personal and professional development strategies and plans to improve job/professional performance, work relationships, self-care and self-regulation strategies
Course Outcome 5	4.7 Use the Reflective Practice tools learned to strengthen SSW practice and self-awareness of values, beliefs, experiences, personal biases/values 4.8 Develop learning and professional goals related to fieldword duties and SSW Learning  Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 5
5. Demonstrate, apply and	5.1 Build upon and enhance knowledge of fieldwork setting analyze the social/human service system and how programs are delivered to address the needs of people served.	service delivery from a mezzo and macro level SSW lens through discussions in supervision, and review of field work setting materials 5.2 Accurately identify and analyze the effects of various policies/government directives on clients and the delivery of services 5.2 Identify, review and analyze relevant social welfare system policy initiatives aimed to address client needs and have ability to document and discuss in supervision and co-requisite seminar course 5.3 Describe and analyze the presenting concerns/social problems with appreciation of the larger social, political, historical, cultural and economic context 5.4 Engage in or create learning activities that promote allyship which address systemic barriers and/or meet field setting and client needs 5.6 Apply critical thinking to analyze, formulate, and advocate for policies that advance human rights, social and economic justice 5.7 Demonstrate knowledge of the guiding policy and/or legislation of the field work setting by presenting information in seminar, learning contract progress notes or reflective journals 5.8 Incorporate lived experiences/client voices in advocacy/education/social change efforts 5.9 Describe trauma informed systems of care, policies or procedures within fieldwork setting and apply in s	supervisions/discussi	ons in seminar and with faculty

	Course Outcome 6	Learning	Objectives for Cou	irse Outcome 6
	6. Demonstrate essential employment readiness and skills at a SSW graduating entry level.	6.1 Conti consister appearar and appring 6.2 Demo respectfur relationsh SSW Proplacemer 6.3 Demo managen solving slibeing sel able to co 6.4 Use signer meetings performa performa 6.5 Maint seminar of 6.6 Demo seminar of 6.7 Upda 6.8 Use proclection practice at 6.9 Demo documen with SSW 6.10 Dem use of so by the fie 6.11 Con	nue to display profes at attendance, puncture reflective of normopriate use of technoporate ability to initial collegial working hips that adhere to Safessional Standards at expectations constrate required critianent, organizational skills (planning ahead, f-directed, and being melete assigned tast supervision construct, actively seeking feedince, remaining receptate accordingly tain active and consistence accourse the professional portformstrates effective teactourse and the fieldwork setting transtrate computer life cial media tools as reldwork setting	sional work habits such as ality, s/expectations of organization, logy ate and sustain effective and ault College Code of Conduct, and Field cal thinking skills, time skills, problemsetting priorities, taking initiative, ks appropriately) ively by scheduling regular adback on stive to feedback and adjusting stent participation in co-requisite am skills in field setting and solio as required, information literacy and data saw ingurately and professionally in accordance adards and fieldwork setting teracy skills and compliance with sequired seminar assignments in a timely
Evaluation Process and	Evaluation Type		Evaluation Weight
Grading System:	Fieldwork documentation/assignments
Date:	August 5, 2022

Date:	August 5, 2022

Please refer to the course outline addendum on the Learning Management System for further information.

Addendum: