

SAULT COLLEGE OF APPLIED ARTS & TECHNOLOGY
SAULT STE. MARIE, ONTARIO

COURSE OUTLINE

Course Title: INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNIQUES
Code No.: AVT 240-2
Program: AVIATION TECHNOLOGY (FLIGHT)
Semester: IV
Date: AUGUST, 1983
Author: R. NIELSEN-JONES

New: _____ Revision: x

APPROVED: _____
Chairperson Date

INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNIQUES

Course Name

AVT 240-2

Course Number

PHILOSOPHY/GOALS:

Upon successful completion of this course the student will have successfully completed the Transport Canada written Flight Instructor Rating and Instrument Instruction Endorsement examinations. In addition, he will have sufficient knowledge and practice to take the ground portion of the Transport Canada Flying Instructor's practical test.

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT (GRADING METHOD):

The student will be assessed by written mid-term and final examinations and a Transport Canada written Flight Instructor Rating and Instrument Instruction Ednorsement examinations. All tests will carry equal weight.

Grades will be indicatd as follows:

- A - 90-100%
- B - 80- 89%
- C - 70- 79%
- X - below 70% at mid-term
- R - below 70% at final grading

TEXTBOOK(S):

Personnel Licensing Handbook Vol 1, Flight Crew - Transport Canada

Personnel Licensing Handbook Vol 3, Medical Requirements - Transport Canada

Flight Instructor Guide - Transport Canada

Flight Training Manual - Transport Canada

Aeronautical Information Publication - Transport Canada