A minimum mark of 70% is required to pass the course. Make-up tests are not permitted except in accordance with section VI of this outline.

- When attendance is taken, the attendance mark will be awarded as follows: unexcused absences will result in 2% deduction, arriving for class late will result in a 1% deduction, and violations of the dress code will result in a 1% deduction up to a maximum of the attendance grade. In the event of illness, a telephone call must be made prior to the beginning of the class (a voice mail message is acceptable). Examples of dress code violations will include, but not limited to, not shaving, not wearing a tie, etc.

- Attendance is mandatory for all Aviation classes unless approval is granted in advance. In the case of illness, a phone call , voice mail or e-mail message is expected.
- If a student expects to be late or will be delayed for any reason, every attempt should be made to contact the professor, or leave a message on voice mail or e-mail.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:Attitude and Conduct

Attitude plays an important role in your ability to exercise good judgement. Although attitude is not being graded, it affects your ability to learn as well as your safety as a student and future as a professional pilot. Students who display a strong tendency towards any of the five hazardous attitudes pose a grave risk to themselves and others. For this reason these students will be counseled and will be put on a behavioural contract. If counseling is ineffective, then the student will be withdrawn from the program.

The five hazardous attitudes are identified as Anti-authority, Impulsivity, Invulnerability, Machismo, and Resignation. These hazardous attitudes are described in "Human Factors for Aviation – Basic Handbook" on pages 151 and 152.

Make-up exam Policy

- No make-up tests allowed on tests occurring prior to final exams.
- If the final grade achieved for this course is less than 70%, a second final exam may be written at the discretion of the professor for this course. The second exam will be averaged with the first exam to determine the resulting exam mark, and the final grade will be then calculated.
- A make-up exam will not be allowed if a mark greater than 100% is required on the make-up exam to pass the course.
- In the event that a make-up exam is required, the highest achievable overall grade for this course will be a C

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 493 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of Course Outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course Outline Amendments:

The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.
