If a faculty member determines that a student is at risk of not being successful in their academic pursuits and has exhausted all strategies available to faculty, student contact information may be confidentially provided to Student Services in an effort to offer even more assistance with options for success. Any student wishing to restrict the sharing of such information should make their wishes known to the coordinator or faculty member.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Classroom Decorum:

Students will respect the diversity and the dignity of those in the classroom. Student will respect the professor's right and duty to teach and students' right to learn without interference. Students who cause any interference with the objectives of the class will be asked to leave the classroom.

Students attending this class do so to study Introduction to Management; therefore, no other activity will be permitted. Students who wish to engage in other activities will be asked to leave the classroom, as described above.

Cell Phones must be turned off during class time. If a student does not follow this policy they will be asked to leave the classroom.

It is the professor's intention to maintain proper classroom decorum at all times in order to provide the best possible learning and teaching environment.

Electronic devices used to record instruction are not allowed in the classroom with the exception of issues related to accommodations of disability. Formal accommodation documentation must be provided by the student from the Disability Services Department prior to requesting the recording of instruction.

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session. It is the departmental policy that once the classroom door has been closed, the learning process has begun. Late arrivers will not be granted admission to the room.

Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes. Attendance will be taken for each class on a sign in basis. In all cases, attendance of less than 80% of the scheduled classes is not acceptable.

Return of Students' Exams and Assignments:

Exams and assignments will be returned to students during one of the normal class times. Any student not present at that time must pick up his/her exam or assignment at the professor's office within two weeks of that class. Exams and assignments not picked up within the two weeks will be discarded. End of semester exams and assignments will be held for two weeks following the end of the semester. If they have not been picked up within that two-week period, they will be discarded.

Students are required to retain their exams and assignments in the event that there is a disagreement with the mark received and the mark recorded by the professor. If the student is not able to present the exam/assignment in question, the professor's recorded mark will stand.
