This course is designed for the Office Administration student who has a prior basic understanding of manual accounting principles and procedures including special journals and subsidiary ledgers. The course will review these basics with the view of converting this knowledge into practices to learn how to maintain a set of books using a popular computerized accounting package in a WINDOWS environment.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Identify and use many of the menu and toolbar options of the Simply Accounting Window, particularly as related to the General Ledger and related statements.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- recognize and prepare source documents for accounting
- analyze and prepare posting to General Ledger
- prepare a trial balance
- prepare a balance sheet and an income statement
- become familiar with Simply Accounting terminology
- explain the dates used and their significance
- explore the main window and home menu and icons
- differentiate between transactions requiring further processing to subsidiary ledger and those that do not.

This learning outcome will constitute 25 % of the course's grade.

2. Develop proficiency in using SIMPLY ACCOUNTING major modules G/L, A/R, A/P in a WINDOWS operating environment.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- review customer/vendor beginning balances
- enter a variety of customer/vendor transactions
- advance the using date
- enter new customers/vendors
- correct errors
- print customer invoices/statements
- print period end reports
- identify and properly account for GST & PST transactions

This learning outcome will constitute 35 % of the course's grade.

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 493, so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post secondary institutions.

Plagiarism

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in the “Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities.” Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Outline Modification:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information: available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
