

SAULT COLLEGE
of Applied Arts and Technology
Sault Ste. Marie

COURSE OUTLINE

MEDIA II
MKT210-4

ADVERTISING MANAGEMENT

revised  1982

J. KUCHMA

OBJECT IVZ-St

To provide the student with an opportunity to implement principles and theories learned in preceding courses in the applied nature of a placement program. Through observ[^]ing normal business hours (one half day per v/week) and by being involved in actual working conditions, the student v;ill be encouraged to produce work on an organized, scheduled basis within a structured context.

STUDENT GOALS;

To acquire a broad working knowledge of two areas of either media, industry or retail advertising departments, procedures and systems.

T[^]THOD;

the student will have the option of selecting from a list of participating employers, two companies where he/she will be involved for approximately six weeks each on a half day basi3(Thursday afternoons , 1pm to 5pni.)
Those students with "the highest achievement in advertising subjects will be considered first if duplication of choices results?"

STUDENT EVALUATION:

Students will be evaluated on the basis of reports from participating employers as well as input from the instructor. Students will be responsible for signing the evaluation forms along with the participating employer. The student's academic record will reflect the following grade for this program:

STUDENT PLACEI[^]NT PROGRAM

Either

3 = Satisfactory

U - Unsatisfactory

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES: Under the tutelage of the instructor, the student v;ill be required to:

- (i) submit an introductory letter to the cho[^]sen employer along with a one page resume before each placement period
- (ii) be available to the employer as the program timetable stipulates
- (iii) keep a \work log up-to-date as outlined by the instructor for submission at the end of each placement period
- (iv) submit a letter of thanks to each participating employer after each session

IffIDIA II
MKT- 210

Student responsibilities ...continued

- (v) Oral presentation to the class of student's work experience in one of two cho-sen areas. To be presented after the last work session. This presentation should be structured and make use of material examples and perhaps handouts. The time stipulation for the presentation is a minimum of ten minutes and a maximum of 15 minutes.

Note: Choice of topic should in some way be related to work experience or some subject in a similar field.

(check with the instructor)

Important: All copies of letters, logs, outline of oral presentation (submitted to instructor a week previous) etc. must be submitted to the instructor as a prerequisite to receiving a grade for the program.

