III. EVALUATION METHODS:

Students will be evaluated on the basis of the following:

4 Progress Tests @ 17.5 % each:	70 %
Attendance and Participation:	10 %
Assignments:	20 %
Total:	100 %

IMPORTANT NOTES: To receive an additional (OPTIONAL) certification from the Educational Institute of the American Hotel & Motel Association students must:

- (a) Achieve an overall score of 69% or more in all course work for a basic certification.
- (b) Students who obtain a score of 90% or more will receive a course certificate designated "With Honours".
- (c) Students must use the test sheet which comes with new books

The grade upon which the E.I.A.H.M.A. Certificate is based, is solely on the score on the final exam developed by the Institute, but administered in this class (same exam for all students).

The dates of progress tests will be announced at least one week in advance. If a student is unable to write a test because of illness or legitimate emergency, that student must contact the professor BEFORE the test and provide an acceptable (to the professor) explanation. If the student fails to contact the professor in advance, a zero grade will be given. There are no rewrites or supplemental tests provided.

The grading both of individual tests and overall grade will be based on the following scale:

A+	90% - 100%	Consistently outstanding
A	80% - 89%	Outstanding achievement
B	70% - 79%	Consistently above average achievement
C	60% - 69%	Satisfactory or acceptable achievement
R	under 60%	Repeat -- the student has not achieved the objectives of the course and must repeat it.

In order to successfully complete the course, the student must:

- 1) write all four progress tests and the Final Exam.
- 2) successfully complete (pass) three of the four progress tests.
- 3) achieve a minimum of 50% on the Final Exam.
- 4) attain an overall average of 60% on all semester work.

B: ADDITIONAL RESOURCES:

A wide variety of texts and periodicals on sales, advertising and marketing, etc., are available in the Sault College library. The instructor may hand out supplemental resource material on selected areas in class.

V. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1204 or call Extension 493, 717, or 491 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course, as may be decided by the professor. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

NOTE: The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and/or the class, as well as availability of resources. Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.
