I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Child and youth abuse identification and interventions are viewed as the responsibility of every individual. Abuse of children often occurs within the larger system of family violence. Impact of socialization and prevention programs will be examined as pertinent social issues. Assessment, treatment and prevention techniques and programs will be examined including conflict resolution skills.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Develop awareness of the magnitude and a working knowledge of Abuse and Family Violence, including insight as to why individuals remain in an abusive relationship.

Elements of the Performance

- Demonstrate his/her understanding and background knowledge in regards to abuse and neglect issues resulting in a working definition of child abuse.
- Discuss the statistics, which estimate the incidence of abuse within society and the current laws governing reporting procedures.
- Recognize the major causal factors of abuse/neglect and formulate treatment plans in response to various scenarios/case studies.
- Recognize indicators of abuse/neglect.
- Determine reasonable grounds to suspect when a child is at risk for abuse or neglect and may be in need of protection, in accordance with the Ontario Child and Family Services Act, 1990.

2. Plan and implement interventions using evidence-informed practices that promote resiliency and enhance development in children, youth and their families.

Elements of the Performance:

- Demonstrate appropriate interviewing techniques, applying principles of relational practice and the use of life space interviewing.
- Collect and record pertinent information about children and their families when an abusive situation is suspected as well as reporting procedures, in accordance with the Ontario Child and Family Services Act, 1990

3. Gain knowledge of the treatment issues for battered women and men and for children who witness or experience violence themselves, or elders.

Elements of the Performance:

- Describe abuse in home and in institutional settings and suggest preventative action that maintains an anti-oppression perspective
- Articulate the impact for children who witness Partner Assault and violence.
- Demonstrate knowledge of abuse of special populations (e.g. LGBT, elderly)
- Demonstrate knowledge and application of treatment for children and persons who have been victims of abuse or neglect.

III. TOPICS:

1. Background Knowledge of Abuse
2. Estimating the Incidence of Abuse in Society
3. Causal Factors in Abuse
4. Identification of Abuse and Neglect

Participation (demonstrating respect/empathy)	15%
Test #1	15%
Test #2	20%
Test #3	20%
Total	<hr/> 100%

Assignments

Details to be provided in class

Case Reviews

Students will be required to individually complete two Case Reviews during class time. The professor will distribute cases in class. Students will be asked to identify the primary form of abuse, any secondary forms of abuse, related symptoms and their personal reaction to the case. Case Reviews will be discussed class. Further instruction regarding Case Reviews will be given on Week One of the course.

Participation

There are a great many activities in the classroom from discussions to self-protection skills. Students need to demonstrate a genuine attempt at empathy by asking questions and not making judgmental statements about persons or their circumstances. They will demonstrate respect of others by not distracting others with talking, texting, e-mailing, inappropriate or offensive comments. 5 marks from participation will be deducted for such behaviour. Students can earn back participation marks 1 mark a week for future active participation in the classroom.

Test #1 _____

Test #2: _____

Test #3: _____

Students are required to complete all assignments and reports on time. Late assignments (other than substantiated emergencies) will be docked 5 marks per day late (i.e. overnight). If students are not able to attend a test a Voice mail (Ext 2564) is required the day of the test or a mark of zero will result. Reasons for missing a test are illness or emergency only.
