

SAULT COLLEGE OF APPLIED ARTS & TECHNOLOGY

SAULT STE. MARIE, ONTARIO

COURSE OUTLINE

Course Title: CONTRACTS AND SPECIFICATIONS

Code No.: CIV 210

Program: Civil Construction

Semester: Fourth

Date: May 83

Author: W. Davies

New: _____ Revision: X

APPROVED:

J.P. Crozitto
Chairperson

87.04.21
Date

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

CONTRACTS AND SPECIFICATIONS

CIV 210

Course Name

Course Number

PHILOSOPHY/GOALS:

1. To develop an understanding of the legal parameters that govern construction contracts.
2. To develop an understanding of resource allocation by cultivating skill in programming and progress control.
3. To develop an understanding of the form and purpose of the various civil engineering organizations.
4. To develop Junior Management skills

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT (GRADING METHOD):

Examination - Law and Documents	25%
Course Work - Programming	50%
Examination - Organization	25%
	100%

TEXTBOOK(S):

Construction Methods and Management - McNally

CONTRACTS AND SPECIFICATIONS

CIV-210-2 .

CONSTRUCTION METHODS AND MANAGEMENT - McNally

REFERENCE

C.P.M. In Construction Management - O'Brien

Canadian Building Contracts - Goldsmith

All Canadian Standard Forms of Contract

International Form of Civil Engineering Contracts

NOTE: The following course outline should be read in conjunction with both the general and specific objectives of the course.