**NOTE: Mid-term grades are due October 19, 1992. In that regard, it is essential that there is an accurate indicator of student progress. Mid-term grades are an indication of potential success or failure in a course. In the event that mid-term grades are not satisfactory, the student will be required to meet with the instructor to develop a strategy whereby academic difficulties may be dealt with and the student may proceed to an overall "passing grade" in the course.

**** It is the student's responsibility to schedule this meeting with teacher upon receipt of mid-term grades.

An "R" at mid-term is an automatic course repeat.

**** Theme file is to be submitted to instructor October 15, 1992 for review and grading.

The criteria for a successful grade for the theme file is that it contains pertinent articles, that it is up-to-date, that sources are identified, and that it is professional in appearance.

THEME FILE

The intent of this assignment is to encourage the student to increase awareness of child/adolescent related issues, and to become familiar with information resources.

Awareness can be achieved through the classroom, as well as through additional reading and research.

Sources of pertinent information that are easy to access are recent and current:

1. newspapers,
2. magazines,
3. television,
4. meetings,
5. personal interviews,
6. journals.

** Minimum number of pertinent articles is fifteen (15). Documentation of sources is required as per APA format (attached). There are no exceptions.

Articles are to be clipped*, mounted on loose leaf paper (plain) and contained within a duo-tang cover.

*Do not clip articles from library resources. Highlight specific points of interest in articles.

NOTE: Lurid accounts of child abuse, children of alien life forms et al., etc., from "supermarket tabloids" are unacceptable. Inclusion of these materials in one's theme file will result in embarrassment and the public ridicule of the offending student.

SPECIAL NEEDS NOTE

Students with special needs (eg. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, learning disabilities) are encouraged to discuss required accommodations confidentially with the instructor.

Your instructor reserves the right to modify the course as he/she deems necessary to meet the needs of students.
