I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will build upon the student's knowledge of theory and technique in Child and Youth Work. A variety of therapeutic approaches and philosophies will be studied with an emphasis upon understanding the processes involved and application in situations drawn from life experiences. Techniques affecting treatment and counselling application will be identified with the major focus being an empathic perspective of the youth, the family and societal implications. As a professional agent of change, the Child and Youth Worker must be able to demonstrate his/her knowledge and understanding of youth within the context of development: physical, psychological, familial and social.

Students are expected to consistently apply the skills previously studied, as befits the "senior-level" nature of this course.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Foster and utilize therapeutic environments which respect culture and which promote overall well-being and facilitate positive change for children, youths, and their families.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- identify established counselling processes as they relate to children/youth/families
- demonstrate respect and genuineness in the simulated sessions

2. Design and implement strategies which promote the overall well-being of the client and facilitate positive change for children, youths, and their families.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- classify various counselling theories and techniques using procedures and terminology appropriate to the role of the professional child and youth worker
- demonstrate methods and techniques drawn from a variety of counselling theories
- select techniques and strategies appropriate to the needs of the client and/or family

3. Communicate effectively in oral, written and nonverbal forms to enhance the quality of service

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- compare and contrast the various counselling theories and techniques for the purpose of selecting appropriate counselling strategies for particular clients and client groups
- articulate the principles of various counselling theories and techniques as they apply to children and youth

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 1. Group Presentation re: Counselling theories | 20% |
| 2. Treatment Plan | 20% |
| 3. Mid-Term Examination | 20% |
| 4. Final Examination | 20% |
| 5. Attendance/participation | 20% |

1. There will be a group presentation re: counselling theories. Each group will be assigned a chapter of the text. The group will be responsible for elaborating on the chapter assigned, answering questions of the instructor and class, and providing a demonstration of methodology related to the topic area. One hour and a half will be allotted for each presentation. No written submission will be required. Groups and dates to be assigned in class.
2. A treatment plan will be submitted by each student - using a real or simulated case. This plan will incorporate a thorough assessment, problem statement(s), goal statement(s), and appropriate interventions identified. Barriers to treatment need to be stated with strategies presented to overcome these barriers. The interventions identified need to be based on the theoretical models studied and rationale for each intervention clearly stated.. Treatment plan should be typed and submitted three weeks before the final class. Date to be announced in class.
3. There will be a mid-term and a final examination of text material. Dates to be announced in class.
4. Attendance and supportive involvement are professional expectations.
