6. Professional Obligations (Attached)
7. Role of the applied training for Child and Youth Workers.

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

I Never Knew I Had A Choice, by Corey and Corey.
Cost TBA

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/ GRADING SYSTEM:

1. Preservation of confidentiality as per CYW policy.
2. Regular attendance at Fieldwork Preparation. This means that 80% of classes per semester is minimum attendance. The total grade can be reduced if attendance falls below 80%. The purpose of attendance is to ensure that activities are done with a receptive contributing audience as well as to allow students to demonstrate their professional commitment. Professional level participation is expected and one cannot participate if absent.

Allowance is made here for emergencies. The instructor reserves the right to ask for verification of absence in any case.

3. Participation in activities and discussions is required. The instructor will determine the grading for this section.
4. Students will be required to submit a plan outlining an overview of their academic schedule for this semester including time allotted for study.
5. Students will write two tests on material covered over the duration of the course.
6. Students will be required to perform training and a structured observation exercise.
7. Completion of placement orientation and related report is required by students as well.

GRADING SYSTEM

1.	Personal Strategic Success Plan:	10%
2.	Observation Exercise	10%
3.	2 Tests	30%
4.	Final Report on Placement	20%
5.	Participation	30%

The instructor has the purgative of assigning a rewrite if work is not performed at a suitable level. This will be explained in class so that everyone is aware of expectations. If training or activities are missed for any reason, the opportunity to re-schedule may not be available.

Time lines will be given and must be adhered to. Need for extensions may result in fieldwork being jeopardized.

COLLEGE GRADING POLICY

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in postsecondary courses:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent
A+	90 - 100%	4.00
A	80 - 89%	3.75
B	70 - 79%	3.00
C	60 - 69%	2.00
R (Repeat)	59% or below	0.00
CR (Credit)	Credit for diploma requirements has been awarded.
S	Satisfactory achievement in field placement or non-graded subject areas.
U	Unsatisfactory achievement in field placement or non-graded subject areas.
X	A temporary grade. This is used in limited situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course (see Policies & Procedures Manual – Deferred Grades and Make-up).
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office. This is used to facilitate transcript preparation when, for extenuating circumstances, it has not been possible for the faculty member to report grades.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1204 or call Extension 493, 717, or 491 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course outline amendments:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.

VIII. PROFESSIONAL OBLIGATIONS:

1. To regard the welfare of the individuals, the groups and the community you serve as your primary professional duty.
2. To hold yourself personally responsible for your professional conduct.
3. To be willing always to increase your professional competence and to willingly share your knowledge with others in your profession.
4. To strive to support the further development of your profession by participating, to the best of your ability, in related professional associations.
5. To work co-operatively with other persons having regard for their areas of competence.
6. To use care in expressing views on the findings, opinions and professional conduct of colleagues, confining such comments to matters of fact and matters of his/her own knowledge.
7. To respect the privacy, dignity and other rights of clients.
8. To use, in a responsible manner, information received in the course of professional relationships.

Following, are a number of rules pertaining to the students' relationship to the field placement location he or she will be working in. It is imperative that each student comprehend fully and follow closely these rules so as to get the maximum education value from his or her field placement experience.

1. Find out all you can about your field placement setting, its policies, functions and general philosophy taking care to ask only pertinent questions.
2. Find out your designated role at your field placement location and follow it well. Remember, you are not on field placement in the capacity of diagnosticians but as students to follow through on the instruction of the field contact personnel. New approaches to your assignments must first be approved by the field contact person.
3. Ask the staff for guidance. Do not plunge into something you know nothing about.
4. Be polite, courteous and attentive. Remember, you are there to learn and observe.
5. Never be judgmental on the program carried out by a specific field placement setting. Remember you are a student learning and not someone there to assess the relative merits of the program. Never be openly critical. Concerns of the service delivery can be discussed in the confidence of the Integrated Seminar.
6. Dress and personal deportment are according to acceptable norms of the placement setting.

VIII. PROFESSIONAL OBLIGATIONS:

7. Be willing to share any pertinent information you have learned in the setting with the staff who work there if you are asked.
8. Any problems encountered in your field placement should be taken to your field work supervisor. Never confront the staff with the problem.
9. Make sure you are always on time for your placement and contact the field work supervisor and the field placement well in advance if it is necessary for you to be absent.
10. Remember, that the experiences you have in your field placement are part of a learning experience and are to be held in the strictest confidence. The students will not discuss cases with others who have no direct relationships to the client. This is applied to other staff within your field placement as well as outside. At the field placement, keep your records and correspondence in a confidential manner. During the Integrated Seminars, you will maintain confidentiality by referring to your clients by fictitious names and deleting only facts that you believe to be identifying to those present.
