I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Child Care Methodology I serves as an introductory course to the field of Child and Youth Work. The basic philosophy throughout this course is that as there is a body of knowledge, skills, and attitudes that are uniquely those of the competent Child and Youth Worker. Child and Youth Work is an established profession with its own history and operates within a Code of Ethics and has both provincial (Ontario Association of Child and Youth Counsellors – OACYC,) and national (Canadian Association of Child and Youth Counsellors – CYCC) associations.

In this course, we will explore three central themes: the child at risk; the environment or settings that serve the child; and the Child and Youth Worker as an agent of therapeutic change.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Represent one's skills, knowledge and experience as a Child and Youth Worker in training in a realistic and clear manner for personal and professional purposes.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Discuss the development of the Child and Youth work profession relative to the human service delivery system.
- b. List and describe skills and attitudinal factors pertinent to this field.
- c. Identify and describe employment settings for CYW.
- 2. Determine the roles and boundaries of a Child and Youth Worker in the current and evolving human service delivery system.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Demonstrate a familiarity with the role of the Child and Youth Worker in the delivery of service.
- b. Apply the knowledge to simulated situations.
- 3. Foster and utilize therapeutic environments that respect culture and promote overall wellbeing and facilitate positive change for children, youth, and their families.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Define specific child management skills pertinent to various treatment modalities with specific focus on educational, residential, community and family settings.
- 4. Communicate effectively in oral, written, and nonverbal forms to enhance the quality of service.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Utilize professional terminology where appropriate. (This includes spelling and grammar skills which are supported in your Language and Communication courses.)
- b. Demonstrate and apply the concepts of subjective and objective observations and recording.
- c. Integrate the concept of "role-model" to the classroom setting.

III. TOPICS: (including, but not necessarily limited to the following)

- 1. History and development of the profession of Child and Youth Work.
- 2. Current status and future trends of the profession.
- 3. Concept of emotional disturbance.
- 4. Concept of resilience and identification of strengths and needs.
- 5. Impact of exceptional needs on the individual, family and community.
- 6. Intervention responses to exceptional behaviour, i.e. treatment options within a therapeutic relationship.
- 7. Essential components of "Therapeutic Milieu".
- 8. Roles, boundaries and ethics, both personally and professionally, in Child and Youth Work.

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Membership in Ontario Association of Child and Youth Counsellors – Cost TBA. (This will be arranged in class.)

Note: Membership in our professional association is essential to work in some agencies and is part of the criteria for some scholarships available to students within the program. Although it is not mandatory to obtain a membership, it is strongly recommended.

Applestein, Charles D., (1998): No Such Thing As a Bad Kid – Understanding and Responding to the Challenging Behaviour of Troubled Children and Youth. The Gifford School, Weston, MA.

Note: Students are encouraged to purchase and keep their texts in order to build a professional library for future reference and work in the field.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM.

The class will be taught through a combination of lectures, presentations and group discussion. The format will vary according to material being presented.

- a) Attendance: It is expected that each student will maintain a level of attendance reflective of commitment to the learning and to the profession. Children and youth at risk require reliable and dependable adults in their lives and these qualities are expected to be demonstrated in class.
- b) To complete assigned reading/research and be prepared to discuss this material in class.
- c) To participate actively and fully in class discussions, to be respectful of your colleagues, the instructor and the material presented. The Student Code of Conduct, and all other applicable Sault College policies (including The Child and Youth Worker policy manual) apply to all students at all times including fieldwork. Child and Youth Workers are further bound by our Code of Ethics.
- d) To be prepared to demonstrate effective intervention techniques through role-play, simulations, and/or critical incident analysis.
- e) To complete in-class tests on the material covered.
- f) To complete, submit or present assignments as per assigned dates. There may not be any additional time to do a presentation if you fail to present on your assigned date.

ASSIGNMENTS:

1. Activity Presentation: a pair, or dyad, of students will present an activity to the class. These activities can be chosen from one of the suggested websites or books. The activity should take 5 to 10 minutes and will be presented at the beginning of each class as an "ice-breaker" or warm-up activity. If one of the dyad does not attend, it is expected that the presentation will continue, unless prior arrangements have been made.

This activity will need to be interactive, creative and may involve the whole class or be a demonstration of the activity. The schedule will be established in the first week of class.

Due date is ____

This assignment is worth 10% of your final grade.

* (See grading criteria in student information package)

2. CYC Article Assignment: Each student will select a journal article from a list of articles provided by the instructor, and write a two to three page summary of the article including the following points: identify the central issue addressed in the article; address the impact of the issue as it relates to understanding, prevention and/or intervention issues for children and youth; and your personal response to the article.

Date due is _

This assignment is worth 10% of your final grade.

*(See grading criteria in student information package)

- 3. In class written or presentation assignments. These assignments will be done in class and submitted as completed.
- 4. Tests: There will be 4 quizzes (for a total of 50%) throughout the course one quiz each month. Dates are as follows: (See important note re: tests & scheduling)

September:
October:
November:
December:

GRADING:

Activity Presentation	10%
Journal Assignment	10%
In Class assignments	10%
Quizzes	50%
Attendance and Participation	20%
Total Grade	100%

NOTE: In the event that mid-term grades are not satisfactory, the student will be required to arrange a meeting with the instructor whereby academic difficulties and strategies to remediate these difficulties will be discussed in an attempt to assist you to meet the course objectives. It is the student's responsibility to schedule this meeting with the teacher upon receipt of mid-term grades. An "F" at mid-term is an automatic course repeat.

*Tests will be written as scheduled – time (allotted in class) and date. If a student arrives late for a test, they may enter the testing room, provided no student has yet left the room. There will be no extra time allowed to complete the test. It is the students' responsibility to be punctual. There will be no opportunity to write missed tests. There are no 'make-up' assignments or tests. Missing one test need not constitute failure in the course.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Course Outline Amendments:

The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

without academic penalty.

Retention of Course Outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Prior Learning Assessment:

Students who wish to apply for advance credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain an Application for Advance Credit from the program coordinator (or the course coordinator regarding a general education transfer request) or academic assistant. Students will be required to provide an unofficial transcript and course outline related to the course in question. Please refer to the Student Academic Calendar of Events for the deadline date by which application must be made for advance standing.

Credit for prior learning will also be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

Disability Services:

If you are a student with a disability (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Disability Services office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 2703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

It is your responsibility as a special needs student in the Child and Youth Worker program to schedule your tests at the beginning of each semester in order that your tests occur on the same day as tests on the academic schedule. If you are unable to schedule your test on the same day, it may be scheduled within the 48 hours prior to the established test date. Students, who write the test after the regularly scheduled test, may not have the test accepted for evaluation.

Communication:

The College considers WebCT/LMS as the primary channel of communication for each course. Regularly checking this software platform is critical as it will keep you directly connected with faculty and current course information. Success in this course may be directly related to your willingness to take advantage of the Learning Management System communication tool.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of "academic dishonesty" in Student Code of Conduct. A professor/instructor may assign a sanction as defined below, or make recommendations to the Academic Chair for disposition of the matter. The professor/instructor may:

- (i) issue a verbal reprimand,
- (ii) make an assignment of a lower grade with explanation,
- (iii) require additional academic assignments and issue a lower grade upon completion to the maximum grade "C",
- (iv) make an automatic assignment of a failing grade,
- (v) recommend to the Chair dismissal from the course with the assignment of a failing grade.

In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Student Portal:

The Sault College portal allows you to view all your student information in one place. mysaultcollege gives you personalized access to online resources seven days a week from your home or school computer. Single log-in access allows you to see your personal and financial information, timetable, grades, records of achievement, unofficial transcript, and outstanding obligations, in addition to announcements, news, academic calendar of events, class cancellations, your learning management system (LMS), and much more. Go to https://my.saultcollege.ca.

Electronic Devices in the Classroom:

Students who wish to use electronic devices in the classroom will seek permission of the faculty member before proceeding to record instruction. With the exception of issues related to accommodations of disability, the decision to approve or refuse the request is the responsibility of the faculty member. Recorded classroom instruction will be used only for personal use and will not be used for any other purpose. Recorded classroom instruction will be destroyed at the end of the course. To ensure this, the student is required to return all copies of recorded material to the faculty member by the last day of class in the semester. Where the use of an electronic device has been approved, the student agrees that materials recorded are for his/her use only, are not for distribution, and are the sole property of the College.

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.
