I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is a continuation of CYW132. It will provide an intensive study of human development from middle childhood to the end of adolescence. Included will be an examination of psychological, physical, cognitive and social growth and development. In some instances, abnormal development and behaviour will be contrasted with normal patterns.

There will also be an introduction to developmental issues during the adult phase of the life cycle, with a particular emphasis on parenthood.

A holistic view of human development and functioning will be encouraged. Emphasis will be on students integrating and applying their knowledge of developmental patterns and occurrences. The course will include an ongoing study of psychological theory, method and vocabulary.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES and ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Promote overall well-being and facilitate positive change for children (from CYW CSAC Learning Outcome #2) through recognition and utilization of developmental influences, patterns and occurrences

Potential Elements of the performance:

- a. demonstrate an understanding of normative and non-normative developmental factors
- b. describe and contrast the psychological, cognitive, physical and social developmental achievements of middle childhood and adolescence
- c. apply selected theories of development to explain and analyze the developmental needs of children and youth at various stages

2. Communicate effectively in verbal, nonverbal and written forms which enhance the quality of service (CYW CSAC Learning Outcome #8)

Potential Elements of the performance:

- a. identify and describe, in both written and verbal form, normative and individual factors as they impact on specific cases
- b. define and apply selected vocabulary from the child development literature
- c. use American Psychological Association reporting format as required

3. Form professional relationships which enhance the quality of service for children, youth and their families (CYW CSAC Learning Outcome #5)

Potential Elements of the performance:

- a. apply previously learned skills in listening and responding to class discussions in order to promote enquiry and validation of different views, by interacting with others in the class discussions and study groups
 - b. actively participate in small group activities, as assigned
4. Perform ongoing self-assessment and self-care to promote awareness and enhance professional competence (CYW CSAC Learning Outcome #6)

Potential Elements of the performance:

- a. demonstrate the ability to manage time and other resources
- b. apply time management skills to ensure punctuality and regular attendance in class, in order to facilitate the group learning and discussion process

III. TOPICS:

1. Review of Developmental Theories
2. Brief Review of Infant and Early Childhood Development
3. Physical Development in later Childhood and Adolescence
4. Cognitive Development in later Childhood and Adolescence
5. Social/Emotional Development in later Childhood and Adolescence
6. Developmental Challenges and Issues in later Childhood and Adolescence
7. Issues of Early and Middle Adulthood

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

1. Children, current Canadian Edition, Robert V. Kail and Theresa Zolner
* Previously purchased for CYW132
2. Access to a course related film and viewing equipment for assignment purposes (details to be provided in class)

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

Tests: There will be five quizzes for 10% each; only the best four will be counted. The dates and further details will be provided in class. There will be no opportunity to write missed tests except in the case of a documented medical or personal emergency. (10% x 4)

Film Case Study:

Oral Presentation:

Students may do an individual presentation or (preferably) a group presentation based on a case study drawn from a popular film. The film must relate to issues of childhood/adolescence and be approved by the course professor. *(suggested film list attached to classroom schedule) The presentation time is 15 minutes per person. Therefore, a pair of students would be expected to present for 30 minutes, a group of three for 45 minutes etc. The number of people in the group will determine the required length and depth of the presentation. All presentations will include a focused discussion component. Presentation style and the appropriate use of visual aids and interactive elements will be evaluated together with content, as is reflective of our emphasis on effective communication and interpersonal skills. The oral presentation/discussion will constitute 15% of the final grade. Guidelines and grading criteria will be provided.

Personal Reflection Paper: Students will individually submit a reflection paper regarding their own developmental experience of adolescence, according to criteria and guidelines to be provided. This assignment will constitute 15% of the final grade.

Developmental Interview With Early to Middle Aged Adult: Each student will submit a developmental summary of lifespan issues for a volunteer subject in early to middle adulthood. This assignment will constitute 15% of the final grade. Guidelines and grading criteria will be provided.

Class Involvement: Participation, preparation, completion of readings, satisfactory completion of weekly assignments, and mature involvement in class will constitute 15% of the final grade.

W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

Note: Students may be assigned an “F” grade at Midterm for unsatisfactory performance.

V11. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session. Once the classroom door has been closed and the learning process has begun, late arrivers may not be granted admission to the room until the first scheduled break unless otherwise permitted by the instructor.

VIII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM:

The provisions contained in the addendum are located on the portal and form part of this course outline.
