I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Child and Youth workers are required to work with individuals in a wide range of complex interactions. It is essential that the worker has as full a picture of the client as is possible. It is in this regard that the student needs to explore issues in human sexuality to complement and contribute to more complete understanding of the individual.

The principal goal of this course is to present to the student a body of information in the area of human sexuality. In conjunction with this, it is anticipated that the student will explore his/her own sexual values and attitudes and reach an understanding of how these influence the helping relationship.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Foster and utilize therapeutic environments which respect culture and which promote the overall well-being and facilitates positive change for children and their families.

Potential Elements of the Performance

- a. Discuss the historical basis leading to the development of cultural attitudes, perceptions and values in the area of human sexuality.
 - b. Discuss the methodology of and outline the role that research plays in the study of human sexuality.
 - c. Discuss with supporting data, acceptable sexual behaviour and the role that "context" plays in the determination of the acceptable nature of the behaviour.
2. Understand relationships among individuals and society.

Potential Elements of the Performance

- a. Explain the role of gender in sexual learning.
- b. Identify the role that family structure and function plays in this area.
- c. Describe the role that the socialization process in general plays in the development of a sexual identity.
- d. Discuss the role of the media that is influential in the development of sex roles.

3. Design and implement strategies that promote client advocacy and community education to enhance psychosexual development in children, youths and their families.

Potential Elements of the performance

- a. Describe the function and role played by each in the human sexual response cycle.
 - b. Define the issues that may be problematic in providing advocacy and community education.
 - c. Participate in small group sessions with fellow students to practice the delivery of groups for children and youth related to sex education and human sexuality.
4. Manage the use of time and other resources to attain personal and/or project related goals.

Potential Elements of the Performance

- a. Interact with others in groups or teams in ways that contribute to effective working relationships and the achievement of goals.
- b. Engage in the preparation of a small group presentation in an area of mutual interest from areas suggested or another agreed to with the instructor.
- c. Conduct the presentation using a variety of materials and methods that are appropriate to the subject area as well as to the needs of the audience.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS AND GRADING SYSTEM:ATTENDANCE AND SKILL DEVELOPMENT 20%

Students will engage in activities and discussions during regularly scheduled classes. Attendance (10%) will be determined by the total number of classroom hours that the student attends, based on a 3 hour class for 15 weeks. The Skill Development mark (10%) is related to the student's ability to participate in activities and discussion and reflect upon this learning. The format and assessment of the activities will be discussed in class and posted on D2L.

TESTS (6) 50%

Tests/Quizzes must be completed on the date scheduled. If unable to attend due to illness or extenuating circumstances, contact the professor at least one hour prior to the start of the test. If advance notice is NOT given to the Professor, the student will receive a mark of "0". It is the student's responsibility to make an alternative date with the professor that must be scheduled before the next class.

ASSIGNMENTS 30%

This course has both theoretical and experiential components, involving considerable discussion and self-directed learning. Students will engage in small group presentations, case work, group work and in class activities and discussions during regularly scheduled classes. The format and assessment of the activities will be discussed in class and posted on D2L.

NOTE: All assignments must be submitted on the due date at the beginning of the class period unless otherwise specified by the professor. Late submissions will be deducted 1% per day of your overall course mark, which commences at the beginning of the class in which the assignment was due. Assignments will only be accepted after the due date for a period of 7 days (one week). At that point, the student will receive an automatic "0" for the assignment. Students are encouraged to communicate with their instructor if extenuating circumstances exists and request an extension. Granting extensions is up to the discretion of the instructor.

All assignments MUST submit all papers and assignments through the Dropbox on D2L. Assignments not submitted in this fashion will not be accepted and the students will be directed to resubmit their assignment through the proper channels. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with and utilize D2L for all college communication and submissions with and for the professor. Should a student experience problems the IT department at Sault College is available to assist them.
