

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will provide a comprehensive survey of a wide range of religious traditions, both Eastern and Western, including Tribal Religions, Religions of Ancient Civilizations, Hindu, Jewish, Buddhist, Confucian, Taoist, Christian, Islamic, Atheist, Marxist and Existentialist. Students will examine the rich historical, cultural, and theological background of each tradition in terms of its original founders, views on nature, self, society and ultimate reality. Each religious tradition will be approached in an analytical and philosophical manner which will allow students to identify with and to maintain a distance from each of the traditions covered. The course will emphasize clarity, critical thinking and argumentation in an effort to gain an appreciation for the textual roots, fundamental concerns, similarities and differences of each religious tradition.

Here are a few quotations that set the tone for the Religions of the World ...

“Treat not others in ways that you yourself would find hurtful.”
(The Buddha)

“Whatever you wish that men would do to you, do so to them.”
(Jesus)

“Do not unto others what you would not have them do unto you.”
(Confucius)

“This is the sum of duty; do naught onto others what you would not have them do unto you.” (Mahabharata)

“Not one of you truly believes until you wish for others that which you wish for yourself.” (Mohammed)

“What is hateful to you, do not do to your neighbor that is the whole Torah.” (Rabbi Hillel)

“Regard your neighbour’s gain as your gain, and your neighbour’s loss as your own loss.” (Lao Tzu)
