VI. SPECIAL NOTES:Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

Students are encouraged to call or email the professor when they are going to be absent from class. All attempts are made by the Professor to start and end classes on time. Students who arrive late for class may not be permitted entry. Students are encouraged to enter class at scheduled break time. Students who chronically arrive late will be asked to meet with the Professor.

The professor reserves the right to deduct marks for chronic lateness and/or unsubstantiated/unexplained absences beyond 3 full classes up to 10% of final grade.

Tests/Assignments:

Students are responsible to contact the professor directly and immediately when substantial and substantiated reasons create the need for missing an exam. Students must email the professor immediately and prior to the beginning of scheduled exam at leanne.murray@saultcollege.ca requesting a make-up test and state the reasons why this is needed. Consideration and determination of the opportunity to make up a missed exam is at the professor's discretion. Generally, this is granted only for exceptional circumstances.

Punctual completion of assignments is required. All assignments must be submitted at the beginning of class on the due date. Acceptance of late assignment submissions is at the discretion of the professor and is subject to a 10% grade reduction per day (including weekends). Students are encouraged to proactively discuss with the Professor any serious circumstances that might interfere with the timely completion of their assignment. Assignment extensions must be negotiated one week in advance of due date.

All submissions must be word processed and referenced according to APA format unless otherwise stated by the professor. Assignment submission methods will be provided by the professor (Drop Box, Hard Copy etc.).

Classroom Conduct:

Students must follow established and agreed upon classroom conduct as detailed on page 8 of this course outline. Students are expected to model in the classroom behaviour reflective of the profession.

Professor reserves the right to reduce final grade up to 10% when classroom guidelines are not consistently followed.

Cell phones must be off or on vibrate mode. Students may respond to calls/texts after class time.

Students may use laptop computers for class related activities only. Students are to ensure other programs (i.e. face book, MSN) are turned off. Compliance will be reinforced by the professor as per Student Code of Conduct.

The provisions of both the College Student Code of Conduct and the Social Service Worker Program Policies will apply at all times in this course.
