Additional notes for the major project:

Project proposal submission date: 3rd class

Final project submission date: tba

Grade: 50% of final

Late reports are not graded.

If the topic concerns "co-counselling", then teams of two students can work on a single submission for equal grading.

Possible topics: group counselling (various applications); counselling from a theoretical base; diversity issues/special populations; unique therapies. All topics must be approved by the professor. Topic changes are possible.

2. Test (20%): case study based on the module "gay/lesbian youth".

Date: announced two weeks in advance (about week 6 or 7)

3. Class participation (15%): involvement in demonstrations, discussions, "buddy system", assisting others by bringing resources to them as appropriate, general involvement in "team-building", extra reading, time management, and other qualities and activities suited to "advanced professional practice". Attendance is a minimum requirement. Grading will correspond to attendance as well as other indicators of involvement.

Each class will feature some or all of: group discussion of selected topics in counselling; skill demonstration; videotaped feedback; project review.

E. Test #2 – based on questions from the major project (student generated within work teams) – 15%
