I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Child abuse intervention and treatment are viewed as the responsibility of every individual. Abuse of children often occurs within the larger system of family violence. Wife battering is a crucial element of this system and will be examined as a pertinent social issue. The cyclical and transactive nature of violence will also be addressed that includes the partner relationship and its effects on the child. The application of conflict resolution skills to the family interaction can replace dysfunctional patterns. The community response initiatives and the larger social policies will also be studied.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Develop awareness of the magnitude and a working knowledge of Abuse and Family Violence.

Elements of the Performance

- Demonstrate his/her understanding and background knowledge in regards to abuse and neglect issues resulting in a working definition of child abuse.
- Discuss the statistics which estimate the incidence of abuse within society and the current laws governing reporting procedures.
- Recognize the major causal factors of abuse/neglect and formulate treatment plans in response to various scenarios/case studies.
- Recognize indicators of abuse/neglect.

2. Review the process of recording and interacting with individuals and gain insight as to why individuals remain in an abusive relationship.

Elements of the Performance:

- Demonstrate interviewing techniques appropriate to parent(s) and children respectively.
- Collect and record pertinent information about children and their families when an abusive situation is suspected as well as reporting procedures.
- Assume responsibility for the treatment and prevention of abuse and neglect as a Child and Youth Worker (Human Services Worker) professional.

3. Gain Knowledge of the treatment issues for battered women and men and for Children who witness or experience violence themselves, or elders.

Elements of the Performance:

- Describe abuse in institutional settings and suggest preventative action to decrease/stop occurrences.
- Recognize and articulate issues of Partner Assault and the impact for children who witness violence.
- Demonstrate knowledge of elder abuse as part of the cycle of violence.

NR Grade not reported to Registrar's office. This is used to facilitate transcript preparation when, for extenuating circumstances, it has not been possible for the faculty member to report grades.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1204 or call Extension 493, 717, or 491 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of "academic dishonesty" in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in "academic dishonesty" will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course outline amendments:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
