VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

Students will be expected to come prepared to class to facilitate discussion and review of course material. Grades assigned for participation will reflect the student's knowledge of the content discussed, willingness to share thoughts about the material, and ability to respect viewpoints different from their own. Final grade is at the discretion of the professor.

All attempts are made by the Professor to start and end classes on time. Students who arrive late for class may not be permitted entry, and those who chronically arrive late will be asked to meet with the Professor as a first step. Marks will be deducted for chronic lateness and will be reflected in the class participation mark.

Students must follow established and agreed upon classroom conduct. Students are expected to model in the classroom behaviour reflective of the profession.

Cell phones, pagers, and watches that 'beep' must be off or on vibrate mode. Students may respond to calls/pages after class time. Laptops are permitted if used for class-related matters. Students, who do not abide by this, will lose the laptop privilege in class.

Assignments/Tests:

All submissions must be in word processing format (#12 font) and adhere to APA guidelines unless otherwise indicated by professor.

Assignments completed with significant (more than 5-10) writing errors or noncompliance with APA standards will not be graded.

Assignments submitted on time will be considered for grading. Late assignments will be subject to 10% per day deduction (including weekends). It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements in advance of due date and directly with the professor when circumstance may warrant an extension. Students are encouraged to discuss with the Professor any serious circumstances that might interfere with the timely completion of their assignment.

Students are responsible to contact the professor directly and immediately when substantial and substantiated reasons create the need for missing an exam. Students must email the professor immediately requesting a make-up test and state the reasons why this is needed. Consideration and determination of the opportunity to make up a missed exam is at the professor's discretion. Generally, this is granted only for exceptional circumstances.
