I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will introduce students to the special events, conference and tour group markets and their importance to the success of the hospitality industry. Specifically, the student will acquire knowledge of how successful conventions and meetings are planned and accommodated. As a management team member each student will apply his/her knowledge in the planning, organizing and follow-through of group bookings, special events, and other banquet functions throughout the fall and winter semester. This course enhances the knowledge and skillsets of the students in the Northern Ontario Hospitality and Tourism Institute to effectively manage large groups of customers in a hospitality setting.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Identify and discuss the scope and key components of the meetings and conventions industry.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Discuss factors which influenced the historical development of the meetings and conventions industry
- Give examples of types of meetings
- Explain the role of convention and conference centres
- Define and state the purpose of associations
- Describe the internal workings of associations
- Outline the major differences between corporate and association meetings
- Give examples of types of corporate meetings
- Discuss the role of the independent meeting planner in the corporate meeting environment
- Identify and discuss other specific target markets for the meetings and conventions industry

This learning outcome will constitute 30% of the final mark.

2. Apply knowledge of how successful special events, conferences and group meetings are planned, organized and conducted.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Explain the role of the meeting planner
- Identify the factors considered in site inspection and selection
- Summarize the important items a meeting planner should negotiate with a convention centre
- Identify and discuss considerations when arranging food and beverage service and guest speakers
- Discuss the legal considerations when planning, organizing and managing meetings, conventions and special events
- List commonly-used methods to effectively market a meeting
- Describe some of the meeting-control devices used to ensure a successful meeting
- Identify the different forms of technology used to assist or enhance meeting presentations
- Identify and explain ancillary conference and convention activities which contribute to the success of the meetings and conventions industry

This learning outcome will constitute 40% of the final mark.

3. Research and identify the critical elements of customer service which contribute to the overall success of the meetings and conventions industry.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- List and explain the sales tools used to sell or motivate business in the hospitality industry and how these sales tools are integrated to gain maximum exposure and impact
- Outline the procedure of servicing the group - before, during and after the meeting

This learning outcome will constitute 15% of the final mark.

4. Explain how to plan, organize and conduct a catering function or special event (theme night) in The Gallery.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Identify the different food preparation systems for banquets
- Describe the procedure for booking and confirming reservations
- Explain the importance of a function sheet
- Explain how to forecast staffing requirements

X	A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Professor's Evaluation

3 Tests (25%, 25%,20%)	70%
Assignments	20%
Student professionalism (Dress code, attendance, conduct)	10%
Total	100%

ASSIGNMENTS:

Since one of our goals is to assist students in the development of proper business habits, assignments will be treated as reports one would provide to an employer, i.e. in a timely and businesslike manner. Therefore, assignments will be due at the beginning of class and will be 100% complete. All work is to be word processed, properly formatted, assembled and stapled prior to handing in.

No extension will be given unless a valid reason is provided and agreed to by the professor in advance.

TESTS:

If a student is not able to write a test because of illness or a legitimate emergency, that student must contact the professor prior to the test or as soon as possible and provide an explanation which is acceptable to the professor. In cases where the student has contacted the professor and where the reason is not classified as an emergency, i.e. slept in, forgot, etc., the highest achievable grade is a "C". In cases where the student has not contacted the professor, the student will receive a mark of "0" on that test.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:Dress Code

All students are required to wear their uniforms while in the hospitality and tourism institute, both in and out of the classroom. Please see attached policy on hospitality dress code. For further details, please read the Hospitality Centre dress code.

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Communication:

The College considers WebCT/LMS as the primary channel of communication for each course. Regularly checking this software platform is critical as it will keep you directly connected with faculty and current course information. Success in this course may be directly related to your willingness to take advantage of the Learning Management System communication tool.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in the Student Code of Conduct. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course Outline Amendments:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar’s Office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advance credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain an Application for Advance Credit from the program coordinator (or the course coordinator regarding a general education transfer request) or academic assistant. Students will be required to provide an unofficial transcript and course outline related to the course in question.

Credit for prior learning will also be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.
