I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The hotel and resort industry requires first-level supervisors who have the potential to satisfy the needs of a demanding industry. This course meets one of the greatest needs, a supervisor who possesses the skill sets to train people. Training is critical to any business but particularly the hotel and resort environment because of its fluctuating staff requirements. This course will provide students with the opportunity to develop training skills that will add to their professional portfolio and also increase awareness of the importance of training in the hotel and resort industry.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the principles of adult education.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Complete an assessment of your own learning style
- Identify and explain the 10 principles of adult learning

This learning outcome will constitute approximately 5% of the final mark.

2. Identify and explain the format for a standard training module.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Explain the importance of determining the learning outcomes for the training module through completion of a needs analysis and topic analysis
- Discuss the importance of sequencing topics and resource material
- Explain the role of the trainer (facilitator)
- Identify and explain the standard teaching strategies; lecture, group discussions, individual exercises, demonstrations, questions and answers, circle response, role plays, simulation, case studies, presentations, icebreakers, brainstorming, guest speakers and field trips
- Identify methods of encouraging participation
- Outline the methods used to evaluate the training session

This learning outcome will constitute approximately 15% of the final mark.

3. Develop a training module for a specific area of a hotel and/or resort operation.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Select two specific training topics
- Follow the standardized training format
- Develop a training module on the chosen topic using your knowledge of curriculum development and delivery
- Use a questionnaire to capture student feedback

This learning outcome will constitute approximately 40% of the final mark.

4. Plan, organize and run a small training workshop.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Determine the date, time and room for the training session
- Prepare training material for your participants
- Set up your training room in advance
- Run your training workshop
- Have each student complete the peer evaluation form in order to evaluate the workshop from a customer perspective
- Conduct a post-meeting review to evaluate the success of the training workshop
- Complete a self evaluation form

This learning outcome will constitute approximately 20% of the final mark.

5. Apply training principles in the planning, organizing and implementation of special events

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Follow the standardized template for organizing special events
- Apply principles of adult education in the planning and organizing of each event
- Identify the needs of the customer and the staff training requirements for each special event
- Participate in the development of job descriptions and task lists for the hospitality industry
- Create and revise training content in the Gallery Teaching Restaurant's Procedures Manual

6. Develop ongoing personal professional development strategies and plans to enhance leadership and management skills for the resort environment.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Solicit and use constructive feedback in the evaluation of his/her knowledge and skills
- Identify various methods of increasing professional knowledge and skills
- Apply principles of time management and meet deadlines
- Recognize the importance of the guest, the server-guest relationship, and the principles of good service

This learning outcome will constitute approximately 5% of the final mark.

III. TOPICS:

These topics sometimes overlap several areas of skill development and are not necessarily intended to be explored in isolated learning units or in the order below.

- Principles of adult education
- Research training programs in the hospitality industry
- Organization, planning and presentation skills
- Public speaking and facilitation
- Training module formats
- Occupation-specific training modules
- Conducting a training workshop
- Methods of evaluation

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session. It is the departmental policy that once the classroom door has been closed, the learning process has begun. Late arrivers will not be granted admission to the room.

Dress Code:

All students are required to wear their uniforms while in the hospitality and tourism institute, both in and out of the classroom. For further details, please read the Hospitality Centre dress code.

Assignments:

Since one of our goals is to assist students in the development of proper business habits, assignments will be treated as reports one would provide to an employer, i.e. in a timely and businesslike manner. Therefore, assignments will be due at the beginning of class and will be 100% complete. All work is to be word processed, properly formatted, assembled and stapled prior to handing in. No extension will be given unless a valid reason is provided and agreed to by the professor in advance.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM:

Course Outline Amendments:

The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Retention of Course Outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Prior Learning Assessment:

Students who wish to apply for advance credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain an Application for Advance Credit from the program coordinator (or the course coordinator regarding a general education transfer request) or academic assistant. Students will be required to provide an unofficial transcript and course outline related to the course in question. Please refer to the Student Academic Calendar of Events for the deadline date by which application must be made for advance standing.

Credit for prior learning will also be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

Accessibility Services:

If you are a student with a disability (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Accessibility Services office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 2703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Communication:

The College considers Desire2Learn (D2L) as the primary channel of communication for each course. Regularly checking this software platform is critical as it will keep you directly connected with faculty and current course information. Success in this course may be directly related to your willingness to take advantage of this Learning Management System (LMS) communication tool.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Code of Conduct. Students who engage in academic dishonesty will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Tuition Default:

Students who have defaulted on the payment of tuition (tuition has not been paid in full, payments were not deferred or payment plan not honoured) as of the first week of November (fall courses), March (winter courses) or June (summer courses) will be removed from placement and clinical activities due to liability issues. This may result in loss of mandatory hours or incomplete course work. Sault College will not be responsible for incomplete hours or outcomes that are not achieved or any other academic requirement not met as of the result of tuition default. Students are encouraged to communicate with Financial Services with regard to the status of their tuition prior to this deadline to ensure that their financial status does not interfere with academic progress.

Student Portal:

The Sault College portal allows you to view all your student information in one place. mysaultcollege gives you personalized access to online resources seven days a week from your home or school computer. Single log-in access allows you to see your personal and financial information, timetable, grades, records of achievement, unofficial transcript, and outstanding obligations, in addition to announcements, news, academic calendar of events, class cancellations, your learning management system (LMS), and much more. Go to <https://my.saultcollege.ca>.

Electronic Devices in the Classroom:

Students who wish to use electronic devices in the classroom will seek permission of the faculty member before proceeding to record instruction. With the exception of issues related to accommodations of disability, the decision to approve or refuse the request is the responsibility of the faculty member. Recorded classroom instruction will be used only for personal use and will not be used for any other purpose. Recorded classroom instruction will be destroyed at the end of the course. To ensure this, the student is required to return all copies of recorded material to the faculty member by the last day of class in the semester. Where the use of an electronic device has been approved, the student agrees that materials recorded are for his/her use only, are not for distribution, and are the sole property of the College.
