I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course helps students to see the beginnings of poetry, music and dance as children respond to the world around them. As a teacher-directed activity with a group of children, students learn how to nurture chant, song and dance as they happen spontaneously throughout the day.

This course is designed to help teachers develop a creative approach to music and to learn skills which will help them encourage each child to discover new ways of expressing her/himself through music, movement, and language.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF PERFORMANCE:

(Generic Skills Learning Outcomes placement on the course outline will be determined and communicated at a later date)

A. Learning Outcomes:

- 1) Identify methods of prompting children to express themselves in creative ways.
- 2) Establish a repertoire of creative resource materials which represents a variety of media and techniques.
- 3) Structure activities which promote children's expressive abilities in music, dance, puppetry and creative dramatics.
- 4) Gain practice and confidence in techniques of presenting developmentally appropriate and anti-bias expressive materials for children

B. Learning Outcomes with Elements of the performance:

- 1) Identify methods of prompting children to express themselves in creative ways.

Elements of the performance:

- Define what is creativity
- Identify methods for prompting creativity in children

- 2) Establish a repertoire of creative resource materials which represents a variety of media and techniques.

Elements of the performance:

- Create the song and finger play file
- Construct a hand puppet and finger puppet
- Construct a hand held musical instrument

- 3) Structure activities which promote children's expressive abilities in music, dance, puppetry and creative dramatics.

Elements of the performance:

- Plan a circle form for music
- Plan a circle form for dance
- Plan a circle form for puppetry
- Plan a circle form for creative dramatics

- 4) Gain practice and confidence in techniques of presenting developmentally appropriate and anti-bias expressive materials for children.

Elements of Performance

- Become aware of the bias present in literature, songs and other media in today's society
- Choose appropriate (anti-bias, multicultural and age appropriate) materials for three different age settings (infant, toddler, pre-school ages)
- Familiarize and utilize expressive materials (such as puppets, musical instruments, pre-recorded music, and dramatic play kits)
- Plan and execute a group time experience that would involve singing, finger playing, drama and movement. First presentation is with peers (the student's own classmates in role play) and second demonstration is in a field placement setting.

This module will constitute 25% of the course's grade.

III. TOPICS:

Note: These topics sometimes overlap several areas of skill development and are not necessarily intended to be explored in isolated learning units or in order below.

- 1.) Introduction to Creative Expression
- 2.) Creativity, Play and Art.
- 3.) Planning Presenting Creative Activities
- 4.) Music
- 5.) Creative Movement
- 6.) Puppetry and Storytelling
- 7.) Creative Dramatics
- 8.) Designing Creative Activities and Guiding Creative Growth

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Text: Creative Expression and Play in Early Childhood Curriculum,
Isenberg and Jalongo

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

The students will be evaluated through both theoretical and practical applications in the college classroom, assigned readings, student projects, planning and implementing activities in field placement.

Attendance and participation are an essential elements in this process.

Attendance will be taken and is worth 5% of the final mark. Participation is worth 5% of the final is determined by the Professor. Criteria for participation includes: being involved in the presentations, workshops(and not 'sitting on the sidelines')_ 10%

Class assignments and projects

10%

Students will be evaluated on assignments based on the Isenberg/Jalongo text

Student-constructed musical instrument 10%

Students will be evaluated on their ability to design and construct, using the criteria provided, (see attached) a hand held instrument. This instrument must have a pleasing sound, be safe and durable. Instruments played by the mouth are not acceptable. (Due: Feb 8 /2002)

Student-constructed hand and finger puppet 10%

Students will be evaluated on their ability to construct a hand puppet and a finger puppet. These puppets will be suitable to use in the classroom with preschool children. Written pattern for each will accompany the puppets. (Criteria attached) (Due Mar 8, 2002)

Creative Expression File 10%

Students will be evaluated on their ability to compose a file of songs, fingerplays, ideas for drama, movement, instruments, storytelling and puppets. This file will identify age appropriateness for three age groups (infant/toddler, preschooler, school age). The criteria for this project will be discussed in class. (Due: March 22, 2002)

Circle Plans 10%

Students will write up and submit four circles (music, drama, puppetry and movement) using the circle planning form along with research on the subject matter. Due dates for each will be assigned in class

Presentation Circle 10%

To college class and presentation of circle in placement. Students will present for evaluation one of their four circle plans to their college class. This circle will then be presented for evaluation during their field placement this semester. Approved circle planning form and evaluation form from placement teacher must be returned to the instructor for a grade. Completed form must be handed into instructor no later than April 26, 2002

Tests (x2)	Mid Term	15%
	Final	15%

Note: Students who miss a test must notify the professor in advance of the scheduled test and request a rewrite. (24 hour voice mail – x572) Allowing the rewrite is at the professor’s discretion if the student had provided a reasonable excuse for the absence. Requests for rewrites will be denied if made one week or more after the test date.

Grading

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in postsecondary courses:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent
A+	90 - 100%	4.00
A	80 - 89%	3.75
B	70 - 79%	3.00
C	60 - 69%	2.00
R (Repeat)	59% or below	0.00
CR (Credit)	Credit for diploma requirements has been awarded.
S	Satisfactory achievement in field placement or non-graded subject areas.
U	Unsatisfactory achievement in field placement or non-graded subject areas.
X	A temporary grade. This is used in limited situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course (see Policies & Procedures Manual – Deferred Grades and Make-up).
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office. This is used to facilitate transcript preparation when, for extenuating circumstances, it has not been possible for the faculty member to report grades.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

All assignments are due on the dates indicated by the instructor. The late policy of the E.C.E. department will be endorsed.

If a student is unable to write a test on the required date, the instructor must be called prior to the start of the test, or the student will receive a "0". Written documentation may be requested in order to substantiate the reason for not attending to write a test.

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1204 or call Extension 493, 717, or 491 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of "academic dishonesty" in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in "academic dishonesty" will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course, as may be decided by the professor. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course outline amendments:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT: N/A

VIII DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
