I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course introduces those who are planning to become teachers to a variety of topics including reasons for teaching, life in schools and human development and learning. Knowledge of all the elements that are involved in learning is the primary focus of the course. A close look at the story of The Girl with the Brown Crayon will help you to understand learning as it occurs in context. Field experience will require you to visit schools/classrooms to observe learners, teachers and others in various education settings – elementary (primary and junior) and high schools

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Relate the purpose of schools as transmitters and re-creators of culture
Potential Elements of the Performance:
  - distinguish between the different educational philosophies that have guided the systems of education in various different cultures;
  - evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of these different views
2. Describe the characteristics of an “effective” school
Potential Elements of the Performance:
  - explore the different definitions of the word “effective” as it relates to the needs of different communities
  - discuss, in class, the different perceptions that different generations may have of effective schools
  - describe the ethics values and dispositions of effective professional educators
3. Describe positive learning environments and how they might be accomplished
Potential Elements of the Performance:
  - draw on personal experiences and discuss, in class, the positive learning environments and see what they have in common
  - observe different classrooms and test theories against the ‘lab’ setting

4. Explain implications of learning styles and modalities for planning instruction

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- complete the Learning Styles Inventory
- discuss the different quadrants and how they impact on learning and teaching
- complete test on auditory, visual and kinesthetic preferences in learning
- discuss right and left brain preferences as they relate to learning

5. Describe different social issues and how they impact on students' learning and schooling

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- list the current political and social issues that we are confronting
- draw on current news media to discover the issues regarding education that are drawing most attention
- relate the impact of technology in society to issues of classroom instruction and student learning
- describe the reasons for emphasis on life-long learning
- discuss how issues such as students with learning disabilities and other special needs are addressed in classrooms, today

6. Demonstrate the ability to be reflective about the individual learning process

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- keep journals
- discuss and share experiences and feelings with class members

7. Evaluate Bloom's Taxonomy as a tool in analyzing learning

Potential Elements of the Performance

- differentiate between cognitive, affective and psychomotor domains
- recognize different levels of learning (in each domain) through observing different learning situations

8. Read, speak , write and listen effectively
Potential Elements of the Performance
- demonstrate comprehension of texts and notes through tests and essays
  - demonstrate clear and grammatically correct speaking in classroom discussion and presentations
  - demonstrate the correct use of English in terms of vocabulary, grammar and usage in reports and essays

III. TOPICS:

1. Reasons for teaching

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade. For this course to meet part of the entrance requirement to the Teacher Education program at Lake Superior State University, a minimum B grade must be achieved.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 2703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Communication:

Sault College has implemented WedCt/LMS as a tool of communication. The professor will inform students as to how this tool will be used in this course, and students are responsible for using this tool as directed.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in the Student Code of Conduct. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course outline amendments:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Chair's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
