I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

FRN101 is part of a six-part program that explores many aspects of the French language, culture and history. This course covers introductory French conversation and involves the fundamentals of French grammar.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Comprehend, write and speak in basic grammatical French.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Recognize and use:
  - a. gender and number in nouns
  - b. the definite, indefinite and partitive articles
  - c. adjectival agreement (qualifying, demonstrative, possessive)
  - d. personal, possessive and demonstrative pronouns
  - e. regular, irregular and pronominal verbs

2. Develop social conversation skills.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- work in diads and groups at greetings and other social interactions

3. Analyze the cultural origins and values of Quebec.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- complete language exercises, the content of which places students in a variety of different settings
- recognize and discuss the multicultural elements of the Quebec French traditions

Note: Each chapter has a cultural note that explores the differences between the language and culture of Quebec and France.

III. METHODOLOGY:

A variety of teaching methods are used including lecture, small group discussions and oral practice using CDs. Supplemental activities and handouts will be distributed throughout the semester.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session. It is the departmental policy that once the classroom door has been closed, the learning process has begun. Late arrivers will not be granted admission to the room.
