I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will introduce the learner to the health care system, the health care team and the legislative regulations that govern the role of the Personal Support Worker. The legal rights and responsibilities of both the client and the PSW will be examined. Concepts will be explored that pertain to building helping relationships, solving problems, working within groups, maintaining safety, infection control, and abuse prevention. Medical terminology and standard abbreviations will be studied to enhance communication within the health care delivery system.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Act within the personal support worker role, under supervision and by following care/service plans and established policies and procedures.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Explain the goal and responsibilities of support work.
- Describe the role that the personal support worker has in providing client-centered and client-directed care.
- Recognize the role and responsibility differences between unregulated care providers and regulated health professionals.
- Demonstrate behaviours that indicate taking responsibility and accountability for own actions.
- Compare the health care delivery systems in community and facility settings.
- Identify situations and the process to follow when requesting support and guidance from supervisors.

2. Participate as a member of care/service teams in both community and institutional settings.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Define federal, provincial, and territorial roles in the Canadian health care system.
- Explain the concepts related to problem-solving, decision-making, and critical thinking.
- Use basic problem-solving skills to function as a member of the care/service team.
- Identify strategies to develop effective working relationships with other care/service team members.
- Describe the delegation process and how it applies to the personal support worker.
- Describe how teams function in various health care settings.
- Identify common stressors and the impact in all dimensions of life.
- Describe basic coping skills that can be used to adapt to changes, stresses, and conflict.

3. Use, under supervision, basic knowledge, care/service plans, and established policies and procedures.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Explain the purpose, components, and relevance of a care/service plan for the health care team, including client and family.
 - Describe the purpose and relevance of established policies and procedures for the health care team.
 - Use basic problem solving skills to organize client assignments and manage time effectively.
4. Make, collect, and report to the supervisor relevant observations in an ongoing and timely manner and record this information promptly.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Explain the concepts related to observation skills.
 - Differentiate between subjective and objective data.
 - Describe the personal support worker role when making observations regarding client's health, function, and emotional state.
 - Explain the role of the personal support worker in the care planning process.
5. Support the client's personal care requirements by following care/service plans and established policies and procedures.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Differentiate between race, ethnicity and culture.
 - Identify factors that can influence culture and how a personal support worker can provide culturally sensitive care.
 - Describe the effect that culture can have on attitudes, behaviours, perceptions, communication, and personal care requirements.
 - Explain standard precautions and infection control measures.
6. Communicate effectively and appropriately using oral, written, and non-verbal methods.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Recognize the importance of a positive attitude, caring, respect, and sensitivity to diversity when interacting with clients and their families.
- Use effective communication skills, strategies, and language appropriate to client's needs and situation.
- Identify basic principles to develop professional helping relationships.
- Write and speak clearly using professional language, correct medical terminology and approved abbreviations.
- Convert and indicate accurate time between the 24-hr clock and standard time.
- Identify the principles and methods of promoting effective interpersonal communication.
- Describe effective methods to communicate with angry clients, family members, and other health care providers.

7. Assist in the promotion and maintenance of a safe and comfortable environment for client's, their families, self, and others.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Identify indicators and responses of physical, emotional, psychological, sexual, and/or financial abuse.
 - Define the responsibility of the personal support worker in abuse situations.
 - Recognize situations and the personal support worker's responsibility in the notification of first responders, such as paramedics, fire fighters, and police.
 - Identify risk factors and safety measures to prevent falls, burns, poisoning, and suffocation.
 - Describe the measures of medical asepsis to prevent the spread of pathogens and interrupt the chain of infection.
 - Identify safety measures that reduce risk and protect the personal support worker in the workplace.
8. Perform the personal support worker role in an ethical manner and within the law.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Describe the influence that legislation and ethics has on the role and responsibilities of regulated health professionals and unregulated health care providers.
 - Explain the client's right to safety, dignity, privacy, and confidentiality.
 - Describe the rights protected by the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and provincial and territorial human rights codes.
 - Differentiate between criminal and civil laws.
 - Explain how negligence, defamation, assault, battery, false imprisonment and invasion of privacy apply to the role of the personal support worker.

- Medical Terminology (Unit Quizzes) Students must achieve an overall 60% on the Medical Terminology Quizzes to pass this component of PSW120.

A minimum of a “C” grade is required to be successful in all PSW coded courses.

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in post-secondary courses:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent
A+	90 – 100%	4.00
A	80 – 89%	3.00
B	70 - 79%	2.00
C	60 - 69%	1.00
D	50 – 59%	0.00
F (Fail)	49% and below
CR (Credit)	Credit for diploma requirements has been awarded.
S	Satisfactory achievement in field /clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
U	Unsatisfactory achievement in field/clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
X	A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of Course Outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course Outline Amendments:

The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
