SAULT COLLEGE OF APPLIED ARTS & TECHNOLOGY

SAULT STE. MARIE, ONTARIO

COURSE OUTLINE

|  |  |
|---|---|
| Course Title | NURSING PRACTICE THEORY |
| Code No | NUR 361-2 |
| Program | NURSING |
| Semester | SIX |
| Date | JANUARY, 1986 |
| Author: | ANGIE BALLANTYNE/PENNY EDWARDS |

New:            Revision        X

APPROVED:
        Chairperson                                        Date

NURSING PRACTICE THEORY                          NUR 361-2

    Course Name                              Course Number

COORSE DESCRIPTION;

This course is designed to assist the graduating student to integrate material from the Nursing Program, Emphasis is placed on the legal and ethical basis of nursing practice.

The course also assists students to prepare for Registration Examinations.

HOURS:   28

CREDITS:  2

EVALUATION:

Based on comprehensive examination results and attendance at scheduled classes.

  Attendance is mandatory for course completion

PRE-REQUISITE:

Preparation for writing Comprehensive Examinations

Review:  Delegated Medical Acts
        Skills expected to be competent in       College of Nurse
        Health Disciplines Act                   of Ontario
        Standards of Practice

PURPOSE:

To demonstrate integration of material from the Nursing Program

GENERAL OBJECTIVES:

These objectives are based on Year Three Program Objectives:

1. to discuss relationships within the health team which ensure mutual co-operation and support

2. to discuss nursing care based on a respect for clients' rights

3. to examine nursing care reflecting the ethical basis of nursing

4. to examine nursing care reflecting the legal basis of nursing

5. to determine multiple accountabilities in nursing practice

6. to analyze the responsibility for own continuous learning.

7. to analyze the responsibility for own continuous professional and personal development

8. to compare and contrast elements of selected nursing theories

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES:

1. write the Comprehensive Examinations

2. participate in review of program material

3. view and discuss filmstrips:

   a) Patient Autonomy
   b) Nurse/Physician Relationship
   c) Nursing Obligations
   d) Institutional Policies