

COURSE OUTLINE

PSW120

Prepared: Esther Jussila Gold R.N. Approved: Bob Chapman

Course Code: Title	PSW120: PRINCIPLES OF PSW PRACTICE I
Program Number: Name	3027: PERSONAL SUPPORT WKR
Department:	PERSONAL SUPPORT WORKER
Semester/Term:	18S
Course Description:	This course will introduce the learner to the health care system, the health care team and the legislative regulations that govern the role of the Personal Support Worker. The legal rights and responsibilities of both the client, their family and the PSW will be examined. Concepts will be explored that pertain to building helping relationships, ethics, values and beliefs. Learn to work in groups, focus on teamwork, working under supervision, accepting and understanding delegation, managing stress, time and problems. Maintain safety in varied workplace setting. Students will learn to interpret established nursing care plans, organize care, make appropriate observations, report and document.
Total Credits:	4
Hours/Week:	3
Total Hours:	45
This course is a pre-requisite for:	PSW130
Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO's): Please refer to program web page for a complete listing of program outcomes where applicable.	#1. Act within the personal support worker role, under supervision, and by following care/service plans and established policies and procedures. #2. Participate as a member of care/service teams in both community and institutional settings. #3. Use, under supervision, basic knowledge, care/service plans, and established policies and procedures. #4. Provide client-centered and client- directed care under supervision and by following care/service plans and established policies and procedures, in both community and institutional settings. #5. Make, collect, and report to the supervisor relevant observations in an ongoing and timely manner and record this information promptly. #6. Support the clients personal care requirements by following care/service plans and established policies and procedures. #7. Support the clients home management services by following care/service plans and established policies and procedures. #8. Communicate effectively and appropriately using oral, written, and nonverbal methods.

COURSE OUTLINE

PSW120

Prepared: Esther Jussila Gold R.N. Approved: Bob Chapman

#9. Assist in the promotion and maintenance of a safe and comfortable environment for clients, their families, self, and others.
 #10. Perform the personal support worker role in an ethical manner and within the law.

Essential Employability Skills (EES):

- #1. Communicate clearly, concisely and correctly in the written, spoken, and visual form that fulfills the purpose and meets the needs of the audience.
- #2. Respond to written, spoken, or visual messages in a manner that ensures effective communication.
- #4. Apply a systematic approach to solve problems.
- #5. Use a variety of thinking skills to anticipate and solve problems.
- #6. Locate, select, organize, and document information using appropriate technology and information systems.
- #7. Analyze, evaluate, and apply relevant information from a variety of sources.
- #8. Show respect for the diverse opinions, values, belief systems, and contributions of others.
- #9. Interact with others in groups or teams that contribute to effective working relationships and the achievement of goals.
- #10. Manage the use of time and other resources to complete projects.
- #11. Take responsibility for ones own actions, decisions, and consequences.

Course Evaluation:

Passing Grade: 60%,

Evaluation Process and Grading System:

Evaluation Type	Evaluation Weight
one minute paper /participation	20%
Test #1	20%
Test #3	20%
Test #4	20%
Test#2	20%

Books and Required Resources:

Mosby’s CanadianTextbook for the Support Worker by Sorrentino,Remmert,Wilk
 Publisher: Elsevier Edition: Fourth Canadian Edition

Workbook to Accompany Mosby’s Canadian Textbook for the Support Worker by Sorrentino,Remmert,Wilk
 Publisher: Elsevier Edition: Fourth Canadian Edition

Course Outcomes and Learning Objectives:

Course Outcome 1.

COURSE OUTLINE

PSW120

Prepared: Esther Jussila Gold R.N. Approved: Bob Chapman

Work within the personal support worker role in the community, retirement homes, long-term care homes and/or hospital care settings in accordance with all applicable legislation and employer's job description, policies, procedures and guidelines.

Learning Objectives 1.

Identify the role that the personal support worker has in the provision of client centered* and client-directed* care.

Identify and discuss the general skills and responsibilities associated with the personal support worker role.

Discuss the concept of quality improvement as it relates to the personal support worker role.

Identify and compare roles and responsibilities between unregulated care providers* and regulated health professionals* as outlined by applicable legislation.

Verify the impact of different care settings* (i.e., community, retirement homes, long-term care homes and hospitals) on the role expectations of a personal support worker.

Discuss a variety of employer policies and procedures that apply to the personal support worker role while in placement settings.

Course Outcome 2.

Act responsibly and be accountable for own actions while recognizing the boundaries of knowledge and skills within the personal support worker role that require collaboration with the client, family, supervisor and/or other members of the inter-professional care/service team.

Learning Objectives 2.

Explain strategies to resolve workplace issues and identify resources that are available to assist the personal support worker.

Discuss potential sources of stress, including workplace and personal sources and how it may impact all the dimensions of health.

Identify resources and techniques to manage stress in the personal support worker role.

Course Outcome 3.

Participate as a member of the inter-professional care/service team and maintain collaborative working relationships in the provision of supportive care within community, retirement homes, long-term care homes and/or hospital care settings.

COURSE OUTLINE

PSW120

Prepared: Esther Jussila Gold R.N. Approved: Bob Chapman

Learning Objectives 3.

Identify the roles that the interprofessional care/service team members, including personal support workers, have in the provision of optimal support and care.

Identify clients and family members as integral to the interprofessional care/service team. Identify and describe the characteristics of respectful, effective interprofessional working relationships and communication.

Discuss how the personal support worker can contribute suggestions regarding clients' plan of care/service plan

Discuss strategies to develop effective working relationships with other care/service team members

Explain strategies to resolve workplace issues and identify resources that are available to assist the personal support worker. Interpersonal communication: Client centered, language of Health care with all members of a Health care team .

Course Outcome 4.

Provide client-centred and client-directed care that is based on ethical principles, sensitive to diverse client and family values, beliefs, and needs, and which follows the direction of the plan of care/service plan.

Learning Objectives 4.

Discuss clients' right to autonomy, dignity, privacy and confidentiality at all times.

Identify and describe personal ethics including justice, honesty, integrity, caring and fairness.

Identify and describe health care ethics including autonomy, privacy, confidentiality, beneficence and non-maleficence.

Discuss how ethical principles are applied in the personal support worker role.

Identify and discuss legislated rights to privacy and confidentiality including applicable legislation regarding the protection of personal information.

Describe the rights protected by the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and provincial and territorial human rights codes.

Identify situations where a substitute decision-maker is authorized to make decisions for an incapable client, including a person exercising a power of attorney (POA) for personal care, can make a decision for clients.

COURSE OUTLINE

PSW120

Prepared: Esther Jussila Gold R.N. Approved: Bob Chapman

Course Outcome 5.

Establish and maintain helping relationships with clients, and their families reflecting open communication, professional boundaries, employer's policies and adhering to confidentiality and privacy legislation.

Learning Objectives 5.

Identify and describe the characteristics of the helping relationship.
Describe and discuss the importance of professional boundaries within helping relationships.
Identify and describe behaviors associated with appropriate client/personal support worker and family/personal support worker boundaries.
Ensure that personal activities and needs do not interfere with judgment and performance as a personal support worker.
Use clear professional vocabulary when communicating with clients and their families and use strategies to ensure comprehension.
Discuss interpersonal communication and conflict management skills to prevent and resolve conflicts in care-giving situations.
Identify and discuss approaches for preventing and resolving conflict in care giving situations.

Course Outcome 6.

Identify relevant client information using basic assessment and communication skills and report and document findings in accordance with the requirements of employer policies and procedures and all applicable legislation.

Learning Objectives 6.

Describe the functions of the client chart and the basic rules for documentation.
Identify the personal support worker role when making observations regarding client's health, function and emotional state.
Explain the function/relevance of the Nursing Care Plan and describe the steps in the care planning process.
Describe how the personal support worker can contribute to the development and revision of the care/service plan.
Review checklists and other forms of record keeping that are used to document observations and client care.

COURSE OUTLINE

PSW120

6

Prepared: Esther Jussila Gold R.N. Approved: Bob Chapman

Differentiate between subjective and objective data.
Write clearly and concisely using correct spelling, grammar, medical terminology and abbreviations given in the established policies and procedures.
Identify how to document in regard to client care and changes noted in clients' condition to appropriate members of the inter-professional care/service team, using communication tools and technologies employed in the workplace environment.
Identify and discuss communication technologies in a variety of care settings e.g., computers (tablets), mobile phones, fax machines.
Identify and discuss guidelines to protect privacy and confidentiality in documentation

Course Outcome 7.

Promote and maintain a safe and comfortable environment for clients, their families, self and others including the implementation of infection prevention and control measures and emergency first aid procedures that are in keeping with the plan of care/service plan, employer policies and procedures, and all applicable legislation

Learning Objectives 7.

Recognize health, safety, and emergency measures along with applicable legislation and the employer's established safety policies and procedures.
Describe various employer's safety policies and procedures including organization's emergency preparedness plan.
Recognize situations and the personal support worker's responsibility in the notification of first responders, such as paramedics, fire fighters, and police.
Identify environmental risk factors and safety measures to prevent falls, burns poisoning, and suffocation.
Identify and discuss responsibilities related to the use of restraints in client care settings and how to use restraints safely.
Describe the purpose of restraints and various types of restraints.
Identify complications that can result from the use of restraints.
Discuss how the roles vary between regulated and unregulated health care professionals in regard to use of restraints.

Course Outcome 8.

Identify and report situations of neglect, and potential, alleged or witnessed/actual incidents of abuse, and respond in accordance with all applicable legislation and employer's policies and procedures.

Prepared: Esther Jussila Gold R.N. Approved: Bob Chapman

Learning Objectives 8.

Identify situations which may pose a risk of abuse or personal harm to the personal support worker and report observations promptly to supervisors.

Describe the personal support worker's right to a safe working environment free from verbal, emotional and physical violence.

Discuss workplace bullying, sexual abuse and harassment, reporting mechanisms and policies aimed at promoting a safe work environment including whistle-blowing protection.

Identify situations where the personal support worker may be at risk for abuse or personal harm.

Date:

Wednesday, August 30, 2017

Please refer to the course outline addendum on the Learning Management System for further information.