COURSE PHILOSOPHY/GOALS

This course involves a supervised work placement in a selected Justice agency. Students become directly involved in Justice service and sub-systems within the community and experience socially responsible patterns of professional Justice work. There will be direct interaction with clientele in individual and group situations.

Regular seminars assist the integration of theory and practice and broaden the student's knowledge and skills base. Ongoing contact between the instructor, student, and agency supervisor will provide the student with assistance and feedback on performance.

STUDENT PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of the field placement, the student will be able to:

1. operationalize, in a real life setting, theories and concepts learned in the classroom.
2. demonstrate skills, techniques, and ethics developed and utilized to achieve agency goals.
3. evaluate and assess their individual abilities, interests, and competencies as potential justice practitioners.
4. assess the reality of existing factors such as space, personnel procedures, financial and budgetary restrictions, administrative procedures, policy, and community and political pressures in service delivery organizations.

TOPICS TO BE COVERED

1. Interaction with individual clients.
2. Interaction with client groups.
3. Involvement with staff groups.
4. Knowledge of the agency.
5. Technical skills.
6. Professionalism.
