I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The aim of this course is to introduce the students to the concepts of both political science and public administration and to determine how these areas relate to law enforcement. The students will examine the history of politics in Canada, as well as the functions and organization of responsible government. This will be enhanced by further study into areas of public administration and the bureaucracy and its effect on law enforcement. Students will become cognizant of theories of bureaucracy, the history of the public service in Canada, and the art of making public policy.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

A. Learning Outcomes:

1. Express the introductory concepts of politics and public administration.
2. Explain the history of government in Canada.
3. Discuss the Constitution along with its Charter of Rights and Freedoms.
4. Describe the concept of responsible government at municipal, provincial, and federal levels.
5. Relate the roles of government and the resultant influences on law enforcement.
6. Determine the theories of bureaucracy and the contributions to law enforcement.
7. Describe the history of public administration in Canada.
8. Discuss the role of public policy.
9. Explain the functions of government ministries.
10. Describe federal and provincial agencies and their operations.

NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

Students enrolled in Police Foundations or Protection, Security and Investigation programs will require a minimum of 60% (C) as a passing grade in each course.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

If a faculty member determines that a student is at risk of not being academically successful, the faculty member may confidentially provide that student's name to Student Services in an effort to help with the student's success. Students wishing to restrict the sharing of such information should make their wishes known to the coordinator or faculty member.

VI.

If a student misses a test due to a verifiable illness or incident, the professor will determine if the student is eligible for an extension of an assignment or re-scheduling of a test. The student is ultimately responsible and obligated to contact the professor by phone, in person, or in writing prior to the assigned due date or test time. The college touch-tone/24-hour number allows you to immediately notify the professor with your name, message and phone number.

Upon returning to college (your first day back), the student will immediately contact the professor to make arrangements for testing. Phone, or come by the professor's office, or leave a note under his/her office door with a telephone number where you can be reached. Failure to do so will result in a zero grade.

Notification policy in brief: Mutual respect, courtesy, and accountability.

Students are responsible for obtaining any materials missed due to absenteeism.

TIME FRAME

Canadian Political Structure and Public Administration PFP211 involves four periods per week for the semester. Students are expected to attend class and to participate in class activities.

VII. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.
