I. COURSE DESCRIPTION :

This course is a continuation of PFP 302, Criminal Code. In this course, students will analyze specific elements of selected criminal code offenses. These include, offences related to weapons and firearms, to the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, and to hate and bias crime. Students will research case law and assess its impact on the police process. They will use case law to argue or defend decisions and to assist in proving elements of offences. Provisions of other Federal Statutes and their relationship with the Criminal Code will also be examined.

How learners might demonstrate their learning achievement of course learning outcomes:

Written Tests:

Questions to test learner's understanding of terms, offences, points of law, and case law (course learning outcomes)

Case Studies

Using real (role play) or simulated situations, students will identify any offences and analyze those offences to establish a prima facia case. Knowledge and skills acquired in other Police Foundations classes, that is relevant to this course will also be utilized and re-enforced. Students will prepare a written report as well as presenting their findings to the class. (course learning outcomes 1, 2,3 and 4)

III. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Martin's Annotated Criminal Code

IV. EVALUATION PROCESS / GRADING SYSTEM:

Students will be evaluated in the following manner:

| Crown Brief Assignment | 25%  |  |
|------------------------|------|--|
| K-9 Presentation quiz  | 10%  |  |
| Mid Term               | 30%  |  |
| Final Exam             | 35%  |  |
|                        |      |  |
| TOTAL                  | 100% |  |

Students are responsible for attending and writing mid term and final exams on the scheduled dates.

Re-writes will not be permitted unless accompanied by a doctor's note.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

Students enrolled in Police Foundations or Law and Security Administration will require a minimum of 60% (C) as a passing grade in each course.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

If a faculty member determines that a student is at risk of not being academically successful, the faculty member may confidentially provide that student's name to Student Services in an effort to help with the student's success. Students wishing to restrict the sharing of such information should make their wishes known to the coordinator or faculty member.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

It is the departmental policy that once the classroom door has bee enclosed, the learning process has begun. Late arrivers will not be granted admission to the
