I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The focus of this course is paragraph writing. Students will produce effective, college-level expository/response paragraphs by developing analytical skills to select and properly integrate electronic and other research materials. Writing components such as rhetorical modes, grammar, sentence structure, paragraph development, editing, and referencing are included.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the following:

1. Plan, develop, and produce clear, concise, and accurate post-secondary expository/response paragraphs; critique and edit written work.

Potential Elements of Performance:

- Practise grammar fundamentals using available resources as required
- Identify audience and purpose
- Use electronic and other prewriting techniques to develop and organize ideas
- Identify and employ some rhetorical modes: example, process analysis, comparison/contrast, cause/effect, division/classification, description, definition
- Use drafting techniques to compose and revise
- Formulate introductory statements
- Support introductory statement with a plan of development
- Write unified, coherent, organized responses in paragraph or multi-paragraph formats
- Write clear, concise, grammatically-correct sentences that show variety in style
- Provide adequate and specific support
- Link ideas using transitional techniques
- Employ post-secondary language suitable to the purpose and audience
- Generate, evaluate, edit, and revise, using computer applications and other resources, to create effective paragraphs
- Format documents according to program-preferred style guides, e.g., APA or the Language and Communication Guidelines
- 2. Research and read various sources critically.

Potential Elements of Performance:

- Identify and look up new vocabulary
- Identify the nature of the information required (distinguish primary and secondary research)
- Use the library resources effectively
- Locate and gather information from the most appropriate sources: print, databases, programrelated journals and general interest articles, and the Internet
- Check for accuracy, currency and credibility of sources
- Determine author's intent, emphasis, and ideas
- Determine main points and supporting points
- Examine and evaluate the information, and draw conclusions about how it can be used

3. Integrate research effectively and responsibly.

Potential Elements of Performance:

- Base ideas on, and support ideas with, source material
- Select source material that is relevant, important, and useful for inclusion
- Integrate research using quotation, paraphrase, and summarization
- Employ a variety of transitional and analytical language to introduce and elaborate on source material
- Document sources using in-text citations and reference lists

III. TOPICS:

Note: These topics sometimes overlap several areas of skill development and are not necessarily intended to be explored in isolated learning units or in the order below.

- 1. Library, research, and documentation skills
- 2. Integration and documentation of source material
- 3. Sentence and paragraph development
- 4. Expository writing using some of the following: example, process analysis, comparison/contrast, cause/effect, division/classification, description, definition
- 5. Responsive writing (single and/or multi-paragraph formats)
- 6. Editing skills: Students may be required to work independently on grammar (e.g., CD topics/exercises)

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Required: (bundled together)

- 1. Haig, J., MacMillan, V., & Raikes, G. (2010). Cites & sources: An APA documentation guide (Revised 3rd ed.).Toronto: Nelson.
- 2. Robitaille, J., & Connelly, R. (2003). Writer's resources (Version 2.0) [CD-ROM]. Toronto: Thomson Heinle.

The professor will announce which of the following will be completed in class under test conditions (minimum of 20% in addition to final exam).

•	Expository paragraph writing, with or without research		30%
	(academic honesty as 1 topic)
•	Research paragraph(s)		25%
•	Documentation		10%
•	Grammar and editing skills		10%
•	Final exam (in-class research paragraph(s))		25%
		Total	100%

Notes

Grade

- 1. Professors will deduct marks for any grammar and fundamental errors in final submissions.
- 2. The professor reserves the right to adjust the course delivery as he/she deems necessary to meet the needs of students and to respond to program area needs.
- 3. Though written assignments and marking schemes will vary from professor to professor, the marking scheme for the final exam will be standard throughout the department.
- 4. Some of the assignments may be in conjunction with program-related assignments, as specified by the professor.

Definition

- 5. All submissions must be the student's individual work. Collaboration is not allowed unless pre-approved or requested by the professor. Unauthorized collaboration constitutes academic dishonesty and will be treated as such.
- 6. The College subscribes to SafeAssign and supports its use as a means of ensuring academic integrity.

The following semester grades will be assigned to students:

A+	90 - 100%	4.00
Α	80 - 89%	4.00
В	70 - 79%	3.00
С	60 - 69%	2.00
D	50 - 59%	1.00
F (Fail)	49% and below	0.00
CR (Credit)	Credit for diploma requirements has been awarded.
S	Satisfactory achievement in field/clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
U	Unsatisfactory achievement in field/clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
Χ	A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: Grades of S or U indicate a student's performance in a course to the time of mid-term, and not successful or unsuccessful completion of the course. A mid-term grade of F indicates that the course cannot be successfully completed by the student, and must be repeated.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of "academic dishonesty" in Student Code of Conduct. The professor/instructor may impose one or more of the following College sanctions: letter of warning, temporary dismissal, letter of probation/sanction, restitution, and/or failing grade. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Prior Learning Assessment:

Students who wish to apply for advance credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain an Application for Advance Credit from the Coordinator, Language & Communication, in E2207, or the Academic Assistant, Community Services Programs, in E2201. Students will be required to provide an unofficial transcript and course outline related to the course. Please refer to the Student Academic Calendar of Events for the deadline. Credit for prior learning may also be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio. Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM:

The provisions contained in the addendum located on the portal form part of this course outline.
