One (1) visual aid
4. In-class quizzes, portfolios, tests	30%
5. Written assignments	40%
TOTAL	100%

Notes:

1. Professors reserve the right to adjust the course delivery as they deem necessary to meet the needs of students.
2. Professors will deduct marks for any grammar and fundamental errors in final submissions.
3. Marking schemes for assignments will vary from professor to professor and from assignment to assignment. This flexibility recognizes that professors need to vary their approaches as they assist students with differing levels of competence to meet the learning outcomes of the course and to respond to program areas.

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT (GRADING METHOD):

Students will be assessed on the basis of evaluation skills, oral presentations, persuasive documents, in-class quizzes/tests, and written assignments.

The following letter grades will be assigned in accordance with college policy and the Language and Communication Department Guidelines.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS / GRADING SYSTEM (cont'd):

A+	Consistently outstanding	(90% - 100%)
A	Outstanding achievement	(80% - 89%)
B	Consistently above average achievement	(70% - 79%)
C	Satisfactory or acceptable achievement in all areas subject to assessment	(60% - 69%)
R	Repeat - The student has not achieved the objectives of the course, and the course must be repeated	(less than 60%)
CR	Credit exemption
X	A temporary grade, limited to situations with extenuating circumstances, giving a student additional time to complete course requirements

NOTE: Students may be assigned a mid-term grade of "R" for unsatisfactory performance.

TIME FRAME

Ideas, Issues and Persuasion (Eng 3150-3) involves two in-class periods and one hour of independent/group study per week for one entire semester. The independent study hour may include activities such as readings, group discussions, research project planning and organizing, analysis assignments, etc., as identified by the professor and based on student needs. (NOTE: Compressed time frame involves four in-class periods and two hours of independent/group study per week for one half of a semester.)

Independent Study

The learning activities for the Independent Study time are as follows:

- |                                       |         |
|---------------------------------------|---------|
| 1. Directed Readings                  | 3 hours |
| 2. Analysis Assignments               | 5 hours |
| 3. Group Discussions/Project Planning | 4 hours |
| 4. Research                           | 4 hours |

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:*Mid-Term Grades

At mid-term one of the following grades will be assigned:

- S Satisfactory performance to the time of mid-term grade assignment (does not indicate successful completion of the course)
- U Unsatisfactory performance to the time of mid-term grade assignment (does not indicate unsuccessful completion of the course)
- R The course must be repeated; minimal performance has resulted in the course outcomes not being met

Special Needs

Students with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, learning disabilities) are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with the professor and/or contact the Special Needs Office.

Complementary Activities

To meet course objectives, students should expect to match each scheduled class hour with independent study.

Plagiarism

To plagiarize is to “take and use as one’s own (thoughts [ideas], writings, inventions, etc. of another); especially to take and use a passage, plot, etc. from the work of another writer” (Gage Canadian Dictionary, 1983, p. 861). This includes using materials downloaded directly from the Internet without proper citation.

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in the “Statement of Students’ Rights and Responsibilities” (on-line Intranet for Sault College). Also, in order to collaborate on an assignment, students need prior permission from the professor.

Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or other such penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course.

In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES (continued):Advanced Standing

Students who have completed an equivalent post-secondary course must bring relevant documents to the Coordinator, Language and Communication Department:

- a copy of course outline
- a copy of the transcript verifying successful completion of the equivalent course

Note: A copy of the transcript must be on file in the Registrar's Office.

Retention of Course Outlines

Students are responsible for retaining all course outlines for possible future use in gaining advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.

Substitute course information is available at the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT

Students who have related employment-centered experience should see the Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) Coordinator.
