PHILOSOPHY/GOALS:

This course is designed to provide the student with an overall introduction to the Native community and the larger social service community which provides service to Natives. This will be accomplished through active involvement in researching the various social service agencies and groups and attendance at various community events.

This course will provide the student with a general knowledge of the Native community and the non-Native social service community.

STUDENT PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

The students will:

1. become aware of and involved in the local Native communities e.g. local First Nations, Indian Friendship Centre, Sault Tribe, Sault College N.S.A.
2. practice the communication and planning skills vital to successful involvement in human services.
3. keep complete and accurate records of community activities attended.
4. demonstrate motivation and commitment by organizing time to attend extra curricular activities related to this course.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS:

Student learning will be facilitated by lectures, group discussion and activity, guest speakers, audio-visuals, and field trips.
