Dean, School of Native Education

PHILOSOPHY/GOALS:

This course is designed to provide students with a knowledge of the basic structure of the Ojibwe language. The focus of the course will be on speaking, reading and writing the language..

The goals of this course are to motivate/stimulate oral and written expression in Ojibwe language and to promote its use on a daily basis. The course will promote pride in Native culture as language is the basis of our way of life. Students will acquire an understanding of their cultural heritage; thereby, fostering pride and developing a positive self-image. The Nishnaabe Bimaadzin Kinoomaadwinan teachings of the Medicine Wheel guideline will be used.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

When you have earned credit for this course you will have reliably demonstrated an ability to:

1. Identify every day items in Ojibwe.
2. Explain how Ojibwe language and culture are essential to regaining and retaining Ojibwe language.
3. Use a basic Ojibwe vocabulary.

TOPICS:

The course content will be taken from the Medicine Wheel teachings.

In the traditional way, the whole curriculum is taught the Anishnaabe Way, Circle of Life, Medicine Wheel Way. Medicine Wheel teachings bring together the holistic approach to the language including the life cycle.

Everything of creation is presented in the Medicine Wheel. In all of Creation, there is a cause and effect. The Medicine Wheel depicts how these things of Creation interact.

The circle is divided into the four seasons.

The curriculum will be geared to the community's dialect, lifestyle, activities and community events.
