PHILOSOPHY/GOALS:

This course is designed to teach the basic vocabulary of the Ojibwe language. The student will also learn grammatical structure, using 7 person, personal pronouns and verbs. Drills and flashcards will be used for re-enforcement.

Emphasis will be on oral practice and use of vocabulary. Once the individual has mastered the correct usage and pronunciation of the language, this course will offer more advanced vocabulary. Along with daily use and understanding of the language, the culture will be emphasized.

The goals of this course are to motivate and stimulate oral and written expression in Ojibwe language and to promote its use on a daily basis. The course will promote pride in Native culture as language is the basis of our way of life. Students will acquire an understanding of their cultural heritage, thereby, fostering pride and developing a positive self-image. The Anishinaabe Bimaadzin Kinoomaadwinan teachings of the Medicine Wheel guide will be used.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

When you have earned credit for this course, you will have reliably demonstrated an ability to:

1. Understand and use the Ojibwe language now and for future generations.
2. Educate others on how the Ojibwe language and culture are essential to regaining and retaining Ojibwe language.
3. Identify everyday items in Ojibwe by voice, commands, and sight..
4. Write and read basic Ojibwe language structure using 7 person pronouns.
5. Write and understand negative structure animate and inanimate.

TOPICS:

The course content will be taken from the Medicine Wheel teachings (Anishinaabe Bimaadzwin).

In the traditional way, the whole curriculum is taught the Anishinaabe Way, Circle of Life - Medicine Wheel Way. The aspiration of the Medicine Wheel teachings brings together the holistic approach to the language, including the life cycle. This presents the Native language as a culturally-based program.

Everything of creation is presented in the Medicine Wheel. In all creation, there is a cause and effect. The Medicine Wheel depicts how all aspects of Creation interact.

The circle is divided into the four seasons.

- the curriculum content is also divided into seasons

- curriculum will be geared to the community's dialect lifestyle activities and community events.

Medicine Wheel teachings - meaning of words and their roots

7 Person Pronouns

Structure of Ojibwe language - nouns, verbs, pronouns, adverbs, and commands.

Building block approach to learning the Ojibwe Language - using Kidwenan Booklet and tape.

Seven Grandfather teachings: how language and culture are one, to which we apply our daily lives in today world.

Using the Mishomis Book as a guide for Cultural and Language lessons.

The topics will instill positive Native pride, self-esteem and worth in the students. Anishinaabe Way of life thinking and values are the way for survival in these times and are to be shared with Non-Native for the good of all.
