- B. Take Home #1 will concentrate on concepts covered in the first four chapters of the text. Students will be provided with individual case profiles. Students will be responsible for proving their case profile is in crises and applying concepts from the text to their profile. Students will be provided with a specific time period, including one period of Independent Study, to complete the first Take Home. Students who do not hand in their Take Home by 4:30 on the due date will receive a "0" on the assignment. This is an individual assignment NOT a group project!
- C. Reports #1 and #2 will concentrate on exposing students to methods used by those in the field who expand use of crisis intervention to assist in the solution of related issues i.e.: prevention of burnout. Both reports will be 3 – 5 typewritten pages and will include personal opinion sections. Specifics on format and process will be provided in class. These reports will be completed after class is completed and students are out on placement.
- D. Take Home #2: The second Take Home will allow students to use the same case profile from the previous Take Home in a more in-depth process. Students will develop a written crisis intervention plan depicting the complete process. Information from Chapters One to Five in the text will be synthesized and applied in a coherent, sequential plan. Students will again be provided with a specific time period, including one period of Independent Study to complete the second Take Home. Students who do not hand in their Take Home by 4:30 on the due date will receive a "0" on the assignment. This is an individual assignment not a group project!

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course outline amendments:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
