

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The belief in the need for balance in work and personal life is at the core of this course. Students will gain familiarity with the field of social work; its values and ethics as a profession. Social work practice theories that guide the action of practice will be introduced. Students will learn to assess strengths and limitations from an individual and community perspective. Basic skills will be introduced as well as discussion of the realities of working with people as a career.

Cultural competence as a foundation of client centred, strength based approaches will be established. Alternative outlooks on problem solving, self-concept and growth will be explored. The teachings of the Sacred Tree will provide a basis of integration with mainstream social work for course outcomes.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Communicate the fundamental social work principles within multiple levels of practice and roles throughout the helping process.

NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Significant learning takes place in the classroom through an interactive learning approach; in addition, much of the course material is skill based practice material, therefore, all students must attend 70% of the classes to obtain a passing grade for this course.

All assignments are to be handed in on the due date and are to typewritten. Any late assignments will be penalized 1% for each day late and will be accepted up to a maximum of 5 days late. NO assignments will be accepted past December 15, 2006 for the Fall 2006 delivery of this course.

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 2703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in the Student Code of Conduct. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course outline amendments:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

The instructor must be notified of absence prior to scheduled test time in order to be eligible to write the test at a later date. Students who do not call in prior to a scheduled test will receive a mark of ZERO. Students who miss a test must make re-scheduling arrangements directly and immediately with the instructor upon return.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
