EVALUATION:

Observation/Reflection Papers: Students will be required to submit a total of 4 reflection papers worth a total of 25%. The reflection papers will be written in respect to the student's role in the group as a participant, facilitator, and fishbowl member. The instructor will provide further requirements for each reflection paper.

Group Facilitation: Each student will be required to co-facilitate one small group in class. Students will sign up to co-facilitate a group. Each group will be determined by a specific topic. Topics will be determined at the beginning of the semester. Each co-facilitator will meet prior to the group and plan how the information will be delivered. The themes and group process will focus on the realities, challenges and rewards of being a second year student in a social services worker program.

Written Peer Evaluation: (1% / peer evaluation for a total of 5%) Each student will write an objective evaluation for a total of five groups. The evaluation will cover observations of the group process and evaluation of the co-facilitator in utilizing techniques and theories.

Chapter Quiz: After each chapter, students will respond to a series of short answer questions specific to that chapter. Seven quizzes will be posted to LMS and the total score will be calculated to equal 10% of the final grade. Quiz dates will be posted on LMS.

Talking Circle Reflection Journal: After a presentation by a guest speaker each student will submit a paper, 3-page reflection journal describing presentation and the relevance of a culturally appropriate group method. Attendance is required in order to write the paper. The instructor will provide details of the paper. Students are also encouraged to attend a circle. The college hosts several circles throughout the academic year and circles are available within the community.

Paper on Panel Guest Speakers: A panel of guest speakers will present their experiences in facilitating groups. The presenters will represent a diverse perspective in the content, audience and process of group facilitation. Each student will prepare a 2-4-page paper on the similarities each group facilitator shared. The student is also required to describe the significance of diversity of groups. The paper will be supported by material from the textbook along with at least one scholarly journal article pertaining to groups.

Multicultural Group Work and Group Overview Paper: Each student will write a final paper describing the various stages of groups, group dynamics and challenges noting the multicultural influences. Students will also include a section on best practice for multicultural group work and provide a personal reflection on the knowledge and experience gained about facilitating groups. Specifics on this paper to be provided by instructor.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance: Significant learning takes place in the classroom through an interactive learning approach; therefore, all students who miss more than three scheduled classes will receive an F in this course.

All assignments are to be handed in on the due date and are to be typewritten. Any late assignments will be penalized 1% for each day late and will be accepted up to a maximum of 5 days late.

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of Course Outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Communication:

The College considers WebCT/LMS as the primary channel of communication for each course. Regularly checking this software platform is critical as it will keep you directly connected with faculty and current course information. Success in this course may be directly related to your willingness to take advantage of the Learning Management System communication tool.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of "academic dishonesty" in Student Code of Conduct. Students who engage in academic dishonesty will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course Outline Amendments:

The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
