PHILOSOPHY/GOALS:

Fieldwork Seminar provides the student with the opportunity to meet as a group to discuss their Fieldwork (NSA125-12) experience. The course is designed to facilitate their growth as competent workers by allowing them time to process their experiences under the guidance of their primary instructor.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. Using the students' fieldwork placement as references:
 - a] Share and compare the treatment philosophies of the agencies in which the students are working.
 - b) Help the student evaluate his/her own work and attitudes on specific situations and with particular people.
2. To improve the students' observation skills and the way in which his/her observations are communicated.
3. Broaden the professional scope of the student.
4. Develop the students' skills in assessing situations and in decision-making process.
5. Develop skills in self-evaluation.
6. Practice in report writing.

Students must fulfill the following (A to E) requirements:

A. SEMINAR PRESENTATION:

Total 20 marks (10 for preparation; 10 for presentation)

Work as a group.

Discuss details of the topic with your teacher.

Decide of the format for your presentation:

- e.g. - invite a speaker in to validate your groups' viewpoint
- present resources to be used in finding a solution (films, books, articles, etc.)

Presentations will be maximum 90 minutes in length.

Presentations will start the week of March 29, 1993.
