I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Course Name

Code No.

This course provides students with an understanding of how groups may work together effectively and is based on the experiential learning model. Experiential learning, as a concept, is most effective when the members of the group perceive their importance in the group as a participatory member. Throughout the course, students will be given the opportunity to examine how experiential learning relates to Native concepts such as group vs. individual learning styles and teaching circles. Parallel to this learning, the students will be responsible for assigned textbook readings that will enhance their understanding of the importance of communication in our everyday lives. Classroom work will closely relate to the textbook readings and personal insights may be acquired and shared by both the Native and Non-Native students for the benefit of all group members.

The course is designed to provide students with the ability to interact effectively with groups within the workplace, social and learning settings.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Evaluate the group learning process and its relevance to the need of Native people in a variety of settings.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION: is vital to the group process. The student must maintain a 90% attendance record in order to be successful in this class (13 of 15 classes).

CHAPTER QUIZZES are “closed book” and will test material covered in specific chapters of the required text (please ensure that you keep up on the readings!). Each test will be comprised of short answer, fill in the blank, matching questions and/or true or false. Prior to each test, a brief review and question period will be conducted by the instructor.

RESPONSE PAPERS will provide the student with the opportunity to assess the relevancy of pre-selected videos based on class discussion and material covered in the text. Further guidelines will be handed out by the instructor early in the course.

The SELF-EVALUATION ASSIGNMENT will require the student to portray his/her life in a visual format. The purpose of the assignment is to show how the student has managed/resolved interpersonal conflicts and tensions with others at various stages of their life development. Further guidelines will be provided by the instructor.

JOURNAL ENTRIES will be expected from the student on a weekly basis. The journal will provide the student with the opportunity to reflect and respond to class interactions, to information in the text and to significant personal events as they relate to effective interpersonal communication. Further guidelines will be provided by the instructor.
