I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The students will explore legislation pertaining to Native people who reside on First Nations and in urban settings in Ontario. They will gain the ability to be an informed liaison with relevant sources external to the First Nation, while empowering and assisting members of the community in need. The course will expose students to issues related to the Indian Act. Students will gain a strong understanding and ability to work with issues related to YCJA and CFSA. Additionally, the link between legislation and social service agencies available in the urban setting and on First Nations will be explored.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Access and accurately interpret in every day working language the Indian Act, the Child & Family Services Act, the Youth Criminal Justice Act and other legislation relevant to the urban Native client.
2. Adhere to and apply relevant legislation for the benefit of the community.
3. Convey information and demonstrate positive role modeling within the community concerning issues pertaining to relevant legislation.
4. Network and liaise between the First Nation community and relevant external sources.
5. Discuss and demonstrate the interdependent relationship between legislation and the social service field in both urban and First Nation settings.
6. Direct clients to appropriate services available in the local network which will ensure that the rights of those clients are protected.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

The final grade will be derived as follows:

Assignments	Percentage
Legislation Review	15%
Report and Presentation	25%
Quizzes (15% x3)	45%
Interview	15%
TOTAL	100%

EVALUATION:

1. Legislation Review: Students will research at least 4 different pieces of legislation that relate to social services and prepare a summary on their findings.
2. Report and Presentation. Each student will research the Child and Family Services Act or Youth Criminal Justice System describing the history, description of the legislation and an overview of the relevant services and the relevance to Aboriginal people. A five (5) page minimum report will be written which will include a personal reflection on what they learned. Each student will complete a 20 minute presentation based on their finding.
3. Three (3) QUIZZES will be given in this course. Each of the three quizzes will include the material covered on the three pieces of legislation forming the focus of the course. Quizzes CANNOT be rewritten in order to obtain a higher grade. Quizzes may be rescheduled for valid reasons at the discretion of the instructor (inform instructor as early as possible.)
4. Interview: Students will interview a professional providing court or legislation related services. Student will formulate questions based on their research on the service and in relation to being social services worker. Further specifics will be provided in by the instructor.

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in post-secondary courses:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance

Significant learning takes place in the classroom through an interactive learning approach. Students cannot miss more than 4 classes if they wish to attain a passing grade in this course. Absence from more than 4 classes will result in an immediate "F" grade.

Handing in Assignments

All assignments are to be handed in on the due date and are to be typewritten. Any late assignments will be penalized 1% per day late up until five days. At that time, the instructor will no longer accept the assignment.

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office in Room E1101, extension 2703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of Course Outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of "academic dishonesty" in the Student Code of Conduct. Students who engage in "academic dishonesty" will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course Outline Amendments:

The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
