I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Families are the primary sources for modeling and nurturing of children. As a result of changing social norms, our idea of family must broaden to reflect current family realities. Effective preparation for social services work must consider the diversity of family systems and processes for dealing with dilemmas. Historically, the Native Canadian family has experienced significant structural changes as a result of the effects of colonization and assimilation. Historical damage to family life and in the current context of problematic behaviour will be examined. Identifying family strengths, resources and community services will prepare social services workers for effective practice in this area.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

- 1. Identify challenges that Native families experience when attempting to adapt to a change in child rearing techniques after contact with the European culture.

Potential Elements of Performance

- a. Understand common pre-contact family and community roles
- b. Connect concept of community as caretaker to idea of family
- c. Identify family struggles related to historical trauma

- 2. Uncover the roots of current Native Family issues in the North American Experience.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Identify various catalysts which changed First Nations family structure and community
- b. Begin to comprehend the role of Residential Schools in the breakdown of First Nation families
- c. Describe the prevalence of child welfare and youth justice for Native people.

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Course Manual with Readings to be provided by Instructor.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

1. Community Resource	10%
2. Exams (#1 & 2 = 25% each)	50%
3. Group Presentation/Written Summary	20%
4. Children's Issue Paper	20%
Total	<hr/> 100%

The COMMUNITY RESOURCE PRESENTATION requires that students research and present an oral report on a community resource related to family service. Students must hand in a reference sheet to validate their research or no mark will be given for this assignment. The presentation will be 10 minutes in length and occur within a class teaching circle. The instructor will provide further details in class.

There will be a MID-TERM and a FINAL EXAM. The exams will not be cumulative and once information is covered on the first exam it does not appear on the second. Exams cannot be re-written to receive a higher grade. Students who miss the exam without making prior arrangements with the instructor will be given a zero on the exam.

The GROUP PRESENTATION/ WRITTEN SUMMARY will be done in groups. Students will be divided into small groups to research and prepare a 10-15 minute presentation in class. Groups and topics will be determined in class. The purpose of the presentation is to create awareness of the particular family issue and to emphasize the importance of the topic as it relates to families. The presentation will be organized using Powerpoint. One group handout for the group will be submitted covering research and information presented two (2) school days prior to class to facilitate photocopying prior to presentation day. The instructor will provide further detailed instructions.

For the CHILDREN'S ISSUE PAPER Students are to independently research an issue related to children/and or teens. Research will also discuss the impacts of the issue on the whole family. Students must hand in a 3-5 page paper (double – spaced, 12 font). Specifics to be provided by instructor.

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in post-secondary courses:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent
A+	90 – 100%	4.00
A	80 – 89%	3.00
B	70 - 79%	2.00
C	60 - 69%	1.00
D	50 – 59%	0.00
F (Fail)	49% and below
CR (Credit)	Credit for diploma requirements has been awarded.
S	Satisfactory achievement in field /clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
U	Unsatisfactory achievement in field/clinical placement or non-graded subject area.

X	A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Disability Services:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Disability Services office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 2703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of Course Outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.

Communication:

The College considers WebCT/LMS as the primary channel of communication for each course. Regularly checking this software platform is critical as it will keep you directly connected with faculty and current course information. Success in this course may be directly related to your willingness to take advantage of the Learning Management System communication tool.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of "academic dishonesty" in Student Code of Conduct. Students who engage in "academic dishonesty" will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course Outline Amendments:

The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

Attendance and Participation

Attendance and participation are important to the student's learning experience. Significant learning takes place in the classroom through interactive learning. You are expected to attend class regularly. If you are unable to attend class you must contact the instructor. Students who miss more than 50% or more of the scheduled classes will obtain a failing grade. It is the student's responsibility to make up any work that has been missed.

Late Assignments

All assignments are to be handed in on the due date and are to be typewritten and handed into the instructor at the beginning of class. Any late assignments will be deducted 1% per day for up to a total of 5 days. Assignments submitted after 5 days will not be accepted.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advance credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain an Application for Advance Credit from the program coordinator (or the course coordinator regarding a general education transfer request) or academic assistant. Students will be required to provide an unofficial transcript and course outline related to the course in question.

Credit for prior learning will also be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.
