2. Attended all classes
3. Arrived consistently on time
4. Utilizes LMS and email programs to communicate with professor and manage course material

Rating Scale:

- 0: did not meet the expectation
 1: minimally met expectation with significant improvement recommended
 2: met expectation with improvement recommended
 3: satisfactorily met expectation

There will be a MID-TERM and a FINAL EXAM. The first exam will cover the first half of the semester and the second exam will be based on the remaining material after midterm. Exams cannot be re-written to receive a higher grade. Students who miss the exam without making prior arrangements with the instructor will be given a zero on the exam.

For the INUIT OF THE NORTH PAPER, the student will prepare an overview of Chapter Ten of our course text. Specifics to focus on will be provided in class. Students will locate and include information from at least 2 additional sources to add to the information provided in the text. Format for the paper will be provided by the professor.

The ISSUES PRESENTATION will provide students with the opportunity to research, develop, present and submit an informative response to a specific and current issue facing First Nations people. The students will be assigned groups of 4 to accomplish this assignment. Each group will be given 15-20 minutes to present their research and what they have gained from it. The paper will thoroughly examine the ramifications of this issue from the perspective of all of the groups/people affected by the issue. The students will build an article collection as a literature review to support their research for this assignment. Information should include Aboriginal service organizations and/or political organizations involved with the issue. Historical and current information regarding the issue should be included. As well, each group should prepare a brief survey of awareness and opinion of the issue to a minimum of 20 people, results of the survey are to be included in the paper submitted. Upon delivery of the presentation, the students will be required to submit a written version of the presentation that is between 4 - 6 pages in length, double spaced and typed in font 12. At least 3 different sources must be used for this research. All sources should be cited in the paper and a resource page (bibliography) is required in APA style. The professor will provide suggested topics and further details.

The VIDEO REPORT will be completed by students in relation to one of the videos presented in class connected to course material. The Video Report will be 3 – 5 pages in length and apply course material to information presented in the video. Specifics to be provided by the professor.

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in post-secondary courses:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent

NOTE: Mid Term grades are provided in theory classes and clinical/field placement experiences. Students are notified that the midterm grade is an interim grade and is subject to change.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Submission of Assignments

Assignments are discussed when distributed. It is the responsibility of the student to seek clarification from the professor if absent when an assignment was distributed or if further clarification is requested related to the instructions or concepts.

Students must contact the professor prior to the due date to request consideration for an extension of an individual assignment. Valid and justifiable circumstances will be considered if granting an extension. Students will complete an Assignment Extension Request form and attach the completed form to the assignment.

Assignments are to be submitted electronically to the professor. The electronic copy provides verification of the date and time of submission. In addition a hardcopy of each assignment is to be submitted to the professor on the due date. The hardcopy will be marked by the professor. Assignments not submitted by hardcopy will not be graded until a hardcopy is provided to the professor.

Late assignments will be penalized 1% per day late and will be accepted for grading up to one week after the due date. Assignments submitted beyond one week past the due date will not be accepted.

Classroom Courtesy

To provide a respectful learning environment the use of cell phones, MP3 players and the like are not permitted in the classroom. Cell phones may be set on vibrate if expecting an urgent message. Students will be asked to leave the classroom when the uses of these devices in classroom are utilized.

The use of computers may assist some students to take notes during class; however, the use of social network sites, such as Facebook or surfing the internet with non class related sites is distracting. Students using computers in this way will be asked to turn their computers off.

Students are expected to be prepared for each class by being on time, having read the assigned course material. Students are advised to review each class course outline and assignments and discuss questions and concerns with the faculty.

Late Arrivals: If late arrivals become a pattern, once the classroom door has been closed, the learning process has begun. Late arrivers may not be granted admission to the room until the break.

Chatting and whispering amongst students during lectures or presentations distracts the professor and fellow students. Students are expected to consider how their behaviour impacts other students' learning and the professor's presentation.

Attendance

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

Significant learning takes place in the classroom through an interactive learning approach; therefore, it is an expectation that students attend classes regularly to contribute to the academic performance and development of professional skills.

By midterm the professor will calculate the attendance and a letter will be distributed to the students who require a plan to address the attendance concern. Students who have missed more than 40% of scheduled classes will meet with the professor to discuss the program and course expectations and create a plan which addresses attendance concerns.

A pattern of absences or lateness may result in academic consequences which may include failure in course, ineligibility for fieldwork component of the program, implementation of a learning/success contract, suspension or withdrawal from fieldwork.

Students are encouraged to communicate with the professor when absences are anticipated and immediately returning from an absence. It is the student's responsibility to catch up on any notes and material missed when absent.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM:

The provisions contained in the addendum located on the portal form part of this course outline.
