SEMINARS

revised May, 1980 by D. Murphy

SEMINAR

FOR 322-2

EDUCATIONAL GOALS

Through interaction with former graduates and other professionals in the natural resource field the student will have a better knowledge of what he will face as a graduate and the opportunities available to him.

The experience gained in presenting seminars and taking part in debates will increase the students confidence and abilities in speaking to groups in a working environment.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

Students will demonstrate an ability to interact with speakers by asking intelligent questions on the subject being presented

Students will demonstrate an ability to grasp the main points of seminars and debates by successfully passing a content test at the end of the semester.

Students will take part in seminars and debates being able to research their subject and present it in a professional manner.
