VI. SPECIAL NOTES

- Special Needs:
If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with the instructor and/or contact the Special Needs Office, Room E1204, Ext. 493, 717, 491 so that support services can be arranged for you.
- Plagiarism
Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course, as may be decided by the professor. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.
- Retention of Course Outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.
- Course Modification:

The instructor reserves the right to modify the course as deemed necessary to meet the needs of students.
- Disclaimer for Meeting the Needs of the Learners
- Substitute Course Information is available at the Registrar's Office.

Attendance Policy:

In keeping with importance of attendance in modern work, students will be granted one absence from lab without penalty. Additional absences will be penalized at a rate of 3% per absence, to a maximum of 10%. Students with perfect attendance will automatically be credited 10% for the attendance and participation portion of the evaluation.

Students missing any lab or lecture are required to contact the instructor prior to the class if possible or as soon as possible. Students with severe attendance problems may be given an additional assignment to recover a portion of the attendance grade depending on the reason.

Attendance in this course is critical because of the opportunities for demonstration of the learning outcomes will be provided.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the instructor.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's office. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
