I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will introduce you to the process of conflict management from the perspective of law enforcement. The effects of stress are examined as a contributing factor in escalating a conflict or as the cause of a crisis. Problem management and de-escalation techniques will be discussed. Conflict management styles and communication techniques will be explored. Problem solving models will be examined focusing upon the CAPRA and PARE models. Indicators of potentially violent behaviours will be identified. Verbal de-escalation techniques will be discussed. Personal safety and restraint techniques used to safely and effectively control a violent person will be examined. Effective and practical use of these techniques will be demonstrated. This course will examine the lawful use of force and personal safety and subject restraint techniques. The effective and practical use of these techniques will be demonstrated. The handling and well-being of restrained persons is also discussed. Criminal and Civil remedies for excessive force and related law are examined.
