V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

Assignment/Exam	Weight(%)	Due Date (estimated, specific dates to be given during the semester by the instructor)
Journal	10%	Week 10
Circles (3X5% each)	15%	Weeks 2, 8 & 12
Mid-Term Exam	25%	Week 7
Issue Presentation	25%	Week 12
Final Exam	25%	Week 13
TOTAL	100%

The JOURNAL assignment will allow students to integrate their growing knowledge about Canadian Aboriginal Peoples into an informed examination of media coverage in Canada on topics related to these populations. Specifics to be provided by the Professor.

CIRCLES are a foundational concept in Canadian Aboriginal cultures. Students will participate in three talking circles throughout the course of the semester to begin to process their social, cultural and personal understanding. Students must be present during classes scheduled for Circles to have access to the marks allocated to this activity. Specifics to be provided by the Professor.

There will be a MID-TERM and a FINAL EXAM. The first exam will cover the first half of the semester and the second exam will be based on the remaining material after midterm. Both exams are open note. Students should use their Chapter Reading Notes to prepare exam material from the text. Good class session notes are also essential to prepare for exams. Exams cannot be re-written to receive a higher grade. Students who miss the exam without making prior arrangements with the instructor will be given a zero on the exam.

CHAPTER READING NOTES: To better prepare you in your understanding of the course material and discussion of related issues, it is important to prepare prior to class time. Chapter Reading Guidelines will be made available on the LMS course site and completed Notes should be prepared on the day of class discussion of that chapter. Completed Reading Notes will create excellent study notes for course exams and reference material for the Issues Presentation.

The ISSUES PRESENTATION will provide students with the opportunity to research, develop, present and submit an informative response to a specific and current issue facing First Nations people. The students will be work in groups to accomplish this assignment. Each group will be given 20-30 minutes to present their research and what they have gained from it. The presentations will examine the ramifications of this issue from the perspective of all of the groups/people affected by the issue. Information should include Aboriginal service organizations and/or political organizations involved with the issue. Historical and current information regarding the issue should be included. Delivery of the presentation must include a PowerPoint of the material presented. Each group will provide a class activity that reinforces their material and is interactive with the class participants. At least 3 different sources must be used for this research. All sources should be referenced in a Resource Page. It will be created in APA style and submitted to the professor on the first day of presentations. The professor will provide further details.

Student groups will choose from the following topics for their Presentation:

- Connection of Canadian Aboriginal People, Identity and Land
- Canadian Aboriginal Peoples and the Justice System
- Canadian Aboriginal Peoples and Health Care on Reserves
- Canadian Aboriginal Peoples and Urban Health
- Canadian Aboriginal Peoples and Child Welfare
- Canadian Aboriginal Peoples and the Educational System (excluding Residential Schools)
- Residential Schools
- Canadian Inuit of the North
- Canadian Métis
- Loss of Language and Culture: Effects of Colonization
- Canadian Aboriginal People and the Media

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

ALL Students must attend 60% of scheduled classes to attain a passing grade in this course. Assignments must be submitted in typewritten format. A late assignment will be accepted up to five calendar days late (with instructor's approval) and will be penalized 1% /day late. No assignments can be submitted for grades after the fifth late day.

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM:

The provisions in the addendum are located on the student portal and form part of this course outline.
