I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Life-span human psychological development will be studied with an emphasis on the characteristic developmental changes in a person's behaviour that are a result of the interactive and interdependent effects of maturation and experience. Psychological research, concepts and theories will be examined in relation to developmental tasks and processes. Students will be challenged to improve their critical thinking abilities and develop a deeper understanding of how developmental psychology can be applied towards enhancing psychological adaptation.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:A. Learning Outcomes:

1. Describe the basic concepts and theoretical perspectives of human development
2. Describe early competence and speech and language development
3. Describe and explain early psychosocial development
4. Describe cognitive, memory and language development and the impacts of early childhood education
5. Describe and explain middle childhood advances in cognitive, memory and language abilities
6. Describe and explain cognitive, moral, educational and career-planning advances during adolescence
7. Describe and explain young adulthood cognitive, moral, educational and career development
8. Describe and explain psychosocial development in young adulthood
9. Describe and explain psychosocial development in middle adulthood
10. Describe and explain psychosocial development in late adulthood

B. Learning Outcomes and Elements of the Performance:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Describe the basic concepts and theoretical perspectives of human development.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Describe basic concepts related to influences on development and individual differences.
- Identify major changes in the evolution of the study of human development.
- Explain and differentiate the five major theoretical perspectives on human development.

2. Describe early competence and speech and language development.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Identify the four approaches to studying cognitive development.
- Describe and explain the Piagetian and Information-Processing approaches.
- Understand early speech and language components.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE (Continued):

3. Describe and explain early psychosocial development.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Identify the emotional, temperamental and social foundations of early psychosocial development.
- Describe early attachment and explain how it is related to the development of trust, sense of self, autonomy and self-regulation.
- Discuss day care.

4. Describe cognitive, memory and language development and the impacts of early childhood education.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Explain Piaget's concept of "preoperational" cognitive abilities.
- Describe language and memory aspects of early cognitive development
- Handout "academic orientation" of early childhood.

5. Describe and explain middle childhood advances in cognitive, memory and language abilities.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Explain Piaget's concept of "concrete operations" cognitive abilities.
- Describe advances in moral, memory and language development

6. Describe and explain cognitive, moral, educational and career-planning advances during adolescence.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Explain Piaget's concept of "formal operations" thinking and Kohlberg's theory of moral reasoning.

7. Describe and explain young adulthood cognitive, moral, educational and career development.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Describe and explain the inter-relationships between "postformal" thought, emotional intelligence and moral development in early adulthood.

8. Describe and explain psychosocial development in young adulthood.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Describe and explain four models of personality development.
- Describe and explain foundations and styles of intimate relationships.
- Identify and describe family life options, choices and experiences.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE (Continued):

9. Describe and explain psychosocial development in middle adulthood.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Compare and evaluate “normative-crisis” and “nonnormative-crisis” models of personality at mid-life.
- Describe and compare relationships with maturing children, aging parents and other kinship ties.

10. Describe and explain psychosocial development in late adulthood.

Potential elements of the performance:

- Describe and explain lifestyle and social issues related to aging.

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES / TEXTS / MATERIALS:

1. Human Development (2008), 11th Edition. D.E. Papalia, McGraw-Hill Companies

Students will be responsible for obtaining any course materials missed due to absenteeism and for regular attendance and class participation in all areas of the course, as well as all readings and tests as requested. The course content and evaluation system can be modified at the discretion of the professor.

Students will be responsible for the College Addendum and Decorum handout. This will be distributed the second or third week of classes.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS / GRADING SYSTEM:MAJOR ASSIGNMENTS AND TESTING

The final course grade will be determined as follows:

1. Quizzes/Tests	= 60%
2. Assignment(s)	= 30%
3. Attendance and Participation	= 10%
Total	100%

Test dates will be announced in class.

Late assignments and/or absence from group work or in-class assignments or oral presentations will not be rescheduled. A zero grade will be earned by the student.

Be responsible by being present and submitting assignments on time with all tests and assignments completed as requested. No makeup tests will occur.

TIME FRAME

Life-Span Developmental Psychology (PSY 204-3) involves three hours per week for the semester.

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT (GRADING METHOD)Special Notes Related to Test-Taking Policy:

If a test is missed due to verifiable illness or incident, the professor will determine if the student is eligible for a rescheduling of the test. The student is ultimately responsible and is obligated to contact the professor by phone, in person or in writing prior to test time. The College touch-tone, 24-hour voice-mail service allows you to immediately notify the professor. Leave both your names, course PSY204, message and phone number.

Upon returning to the College (i.e. your first day back), the student is required to immediately contact the professor to make arrangements for the assignment or test. Phone or come by the professor's office, or leave a note under his/her office door with a telephone number where you can be reached. The college decorum handout contains the details. Failure to do so will result in a zero grade on the missed test.

Notification Policy in brief: Mutual Respect, Courtesy and Accountability

All tests and assignments are to be written or completed in the PSY204 scheduled class times. Students are to read and review the College Addendum and Decorum document which is discussed the second or third week of classes.

* Test dates will be announced at least one week prior to the test dates or earlier. Students are responsible for this information if absent for that class period.

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in post-secondary courses:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent
A+	90 – 100%	4.00
A	80 – 89%	4.00
B	70 - 79%	3.00
C	60 - 69%	2.00
D	50 – 59%	1.00
F (Fail)	49% and below	0.00
CR (Credit)	Credit for diploma requirements has been awarded.
S	Satisfactory achievement in field /clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
U	Unsatisfactory achievement in field/clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
X	A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note:

For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

Mid Term grades are provided in theory classes and clinical/field placement experiences. Students are notified that the midterm grade is an interim grade and is subject to change.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session. It is the department policy that once the classroom door has been closed, the learning process has begun. Late arrivers will not be granted admission to the room.

Arrive on time for class lectures, tests and exams. No late arrivals will be permitted unless discussed with the instructor prior to the lecture, test or exam dates.

All tests and exams must be submitted individually to the instructor directly.

CELL PHONES must be turned off during class time. No cell phones or other technological devices are allowed in class on test days.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM:

The provisions in the addendum are located on the student portal and form part of this course outline.
